

The Boston Transcript

THE STORY OF ITS FIRST
HUNDRED YEARS

The Transcript is the very essence of traditional Boston. The history of its first century, which has come from Mr. Chamberlin's experienced and skillful hand, is primarily a history of the personnel and the policies of the newspaper; but it is inevitably a history of Boston itself through the same period. Much of the material dealing with such matters as the abolition movement, the anti-Irish riots in the forties, the Spanish War, and the police strike of 1919 is extremely fresh and interesting. The book, which is seasoned with a great number of amusing anecdotes, appears with peculiar timeliness in the tercentenary year of Boston's founding.
