A Convict Story Dyshum Jones, 2016-03-06 Jones was on the fast track to success in the illegal drug market when his life was snatched away from him when a drug deal went bad and several people were murdered in cold blood Sentenced to thirty 30 years after being found guilty by an all white jury of voluntary manslaughter for the death of an innocent bystander Jones began his sentence in a maximum security prison within the South Carolina Department of Corrections Now after fourteen years into his prison sentence behind bars and barbed wire fences Jones is awaking in the middle of the night by prison officials He is informed that he is being transferred to one of the most corrupted institutions within the South Carolina Department of Corrections where his past life begins to catch up with him and he has to defend his life by all means necessary from crooked prison guards to blood thirsty prisoners At last someone has written a gripping page turning story about the life of a convict There is not one man on earth that does good and sin not Write a Salable Story Today David Eyk,2020-07-22 Would you believe you could write a salable short story today You don t have to be a good writer you just need a little guidance It will only take you a few hours I ll show you how step by step with nitty gritty matter of fact to the point advice Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang,2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading By the Sweat of His Brow Carroll Engelhardt,2023-01-05 If I had promised to be a priest and kept my word today I would be a feted up high living hypocrite in the so called vineyard of the Lord and not a farmer earning his bread by the sweat of his brow Defying his Catholic parents insistence that he join the clergy twenty year old R M Probstfield emigrates from the Rhineland to Minnesota After some continental rambling and the federal government forcing Native Americans from the Red River Valley a decade toiling for the Hudson s Bay Company persuades him that the Valley s rich soil offers opportunity and as one of the earliest settlers establishes Oakport Farm near the well timbered Red River Documented from a multi generational journal and illustrated with vintage photographs By the Sweat of His Brow sets the Probstfield family s daily activities in the context of state and national agricultural social and political history and opens a window on rural life at the eastern edge of the Great Plains from the mid nineteenth to mid twentieth centuries This meticulously researched eminently readable book colorfully depicts a complicated patriarch loving wife and eleven children eking out a living It will appeal to history buffs and scholars alike A Story for All Americans Frank L. Grzyb,2000 A Story for All Americans Vietnam Victims and Veterans formerly titled Touched by the Dragon details wartime accounts of average servicemen and women some heroic some frightening some amusing some nearly unbelievable The work is a historical compendium of fascinating and compelling stories woven together in a theme format What makes this book truly unique however is its absence of literary pretentiousness Relating oral accounts the veterans speak in a no nonsense matter of fact way As seen through the eyes of the veterans the stories include first person experiences of infantry soldiers a flight officer a medic a nurse a combat engineer an intelligence soldier and various support personnel Personalities emerge gradually as the veterans discuss their pre war days their training and preparation for Vietnam and their actual in country experiences The stories speak of fear and survival the paranoia of not knowing who or where the enemy was the bullets rockets and mortars that could mangle a body or snuff out a life in an instant and going home with a CMH not the Congressional Medal of Honor but a Casket with Metal Handles The veterans also speak of friendships and simple acts of kindness But more importantly they speak of healing both physical and mental
