Stranger from the Sea , Gender at Sea Marleen Reichgelt e.a., 2022-12-14 For centuries seafaring people thought that the presence of women on board would mean bad luck rough weather shipwreck and other disasters were sure to follow Because of these beliefs and prejudices women were supposedly excluded from the maritime domain In the field of maritime history too the ship and the sea have predominantly been perceived as a space for men This volume of the Yearbook of Women's History challenges these notions It asks to what extent

were the sea and the ship ever male dominated and masculine spaces How have women been part of seafaring communities maritime undertakings and maritime culture How did gender notions impact life on board and vice versa From a multidisciplinary perspective this volume moves from Indonesia to the Faroe Islands from the Mediterranean to Newfoundland bringing to light the presence of women and the workings of gender on sailing whaling steam cruise passenger pirate and navy ships As a whole it demonstrates the diversity and the agency of women at sea from ancient times to the present day
