Keith Lynch,2018-03-07 Accounts of fish successfully landed fish hooked and lost fish released to fight another day the pleasures of the environment in which the angler finds themselves the diversity of wildlife locations and fishing venues unsurpassed in beauty and breathtaking landscapes The objective To share some of my favourite and most memorable angling experiences with readers in the hope that these accounts will trigger your own memories and bring back some of your unforgettable moments This in my opinion is what angling is all about enjoyment camaraderie sharing and experiencing some of the better things in life There s more to fishing than catching fish The North Alaskan Eskimo Robert F. Spencer,1959 A Broken Flute Doris Seale,Beverly Slapin,2006-12-21 The Winona dilemma Lois Beardslee No word for goodbye Mary TallMountain About the contributors Performances Dening, Greg,2013-04-04 history is my passion Writing it teaching it reading it fills the days and years of my life In all passions there is pain and pleasure Greg Dening In this collection of writings some new some previously published Greg Denning reflects on his experiences both as a historian and a participant in history Performances brings together the personal and the scholarly demonstrating how our lives are saturated with history how we can only understand our present through our consciousness of the past and how in thinking about the past we mirror the time and place of our own living Each of these essays can be enjoyed on its own yet throughout them all run the common themes of the intricate relationships between past and present the personal and the political historical research and the imagination Denning writes with elegance and candour inviting readers to reflect upon their own participation in the performance of history

Flying Across America Daniel L. Rust, 2012-11-20 Americans who now endure the inconveniences of crowded airports packed airplanes and missed connections might not realize that flying was once an elegant exhilarating adventure In this colorful history Daniel L Rust traces the evolution of commercial air travel from the first transcontinental expeditions of the 1920s through the luxurious airline environments of the 1960s to the more hectic fatiguing experiences of flying in the post 9 11 era In the beginning flying coast to coast was an exciting yet uncomfortable journey of nearly forty eight hours that required numerous stops and overnight travel by train With time and technical innovation passengers became increasingly removed both physically and psychologically from the raw experience of flying Faster planes pressurized cabins onboard amenities and stronger safety precautions made flying more convenient and predictable but also less evocative and sensational Prior to the 1980s Americans dressed for air travel in their formal best and enjoyed such luxurious onboard amenities as delicious meals and ample cabin space What made air travel glamorous however also made it more expensive With deregulation in 1978 cost reductions reduced flying to a more tedious and after 9 11 more regimented experience Rust's narrative brims with firsthand accounts from such celebrities as Will Rogers and from ordinary Americans Enlivened by more than 100 illustrations including vintage brochures posters and photographs Flying Across America reminds today's airline passengers of what they have gained and what they have lost in the transcontinental flying experience

Grotto of Silence John Triptych, A year has passed and the native c thlooq have begun a savage guerilla war across the swamps and rivers of the entire planet The colonists of Wetworld are hard pressed for the insurgents have somehow acquired advanced human weaponry and are supported by mysterious allies Sophie Singh is thrust into a leadership role as enemies from all sides attempt to crush the ruling conglomerate her family has built up over many generations Meanwhile Conrad Gorski an agent from the Vatican is sent to New Bali to find the missing Moises Borbon the one man who holds the key to communicating with the indigenous aliens The war has intensified and the hopes for peace have been dashed With each side becoming more ruthless than ever before who will win in the end

The Non Vaalen Rhane, 2007-02-27 What are They Who are They Why are They Here Shadow Creatures become a popular topic of discussion on the paranormal radio program The Edge Albert Price is curious but comfortable with the strange subject matter Being host of the show for some 15 years he listens with intrigue as the subject evolves Until his own encounter with a shadow creature turns his life upside down Through unsuspecting consequence Al along with two unlikely companions begin a quest with unified determination to find answers Their journey for the truth leads them to a remote archaeological dig in the Arizona desert An atmosphere draped with darkened riddles begins to reveal a secret buried deep within the earth Findings no one could imagine Impaled into their minds is the uncertainty what to do with this unspeakable discovery They are not Ghosts They are not Aliens They are not Demons They are The Non Sometimes the answers we desperately seek are more damning than the questions

Mr Bligh's Bad Language Greg Denning,1994-03-25 Captain Bligh and the mutiny on the Bounty have become proverbial in their capacity to evoke the extravagant and violent abuse of power But William Bligh was one of the least violent disciplinarians in the British navy It is this paradox which inspired Greg Denning to ask why the mutiny took place His book explores the theatrical nature of what was enacted in the power play on deck on the beaches at Tahiti and in the murderous settlement at Pitcairn on the altar stones and temples of sacrifice and on the catheads from which men were hanged Part of the key lies in the curious puzzle of Mr Bligh's bad language

Riding Down the Sky Geoffrey F. Morgan,Geoffrey O'Hara,1928

Thrown Away Children: Sky's Story Louise Allen,2022-05-03 When Sky and her older sister Avril were taken into care the social workers knew this was a case like no other Raised by unhinged parents who hoarded compulsively creating horrific conditions no child should live in the two girls arrived at foster carer Louise's home neglected malnourished and indoctrinated Louise had to draw on all of her experience as one of Britain's leading foster carers to rehabilitate and change the course of their lives But with constant attempts to thwart her work Louise ends up under siege in her own home Will she succeed or is their fate sealed forever

Secrets Beyond the Moon N. B. Blackbell,2020-02-08 Jasper's from the city She lives with her best friend and lives life to the fullest One day she discovered something and it changed her life a conspiracy in death Accidents and murders keep occurring and people are missing Some think it's radicalism others suspect terrorism but it's something more sinister Strangers from the sky are among us and they claimed the earth as their own Very few can see them for they are what we call a shifter These killers walk the streets and plan to eliminate humankind Times get desperate when they are forced to live by the light of the moon Fighting in a dark world to defend humanity against a threat they're unaware of A group of young people see the threat and investigate it only to find out it's something that can destroy the world Since they are the only ones who can see this it is up to them to save it Leading them to discover the strangers within themselves and secrets never told

The Cage Lloyd Jones,2018-01-29 Two mysterious strangers appear at a hotel in a small country town Where have they come from Who are they What catastrophe are they fleeing The townspeople want answers but the strangers are unable to speak of their trauma And before long wary hospitality shifts to suspicion and fear and the care of the men slides into appalling cruelty Lloyd Jones's fable like novel The Cage is a profound and unsettling novel about humanity and dignity and the ease with which we're able to justify brutality Lloyd Jones has written novels short stories and a memoir He won the Commonwealth Writers Prize and was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize for his novel Mister Pip His other books include Hand Me Down World and A History of Silence Lloyd lives in Wellington It is a thought provoking and affecting book for readers of literary fiction where the morally questionable appears very ordinary Books Publishing FOUR STARS A dark fable of imprisonment Sydney Morning Herald What to Read in 2018 Jones builds calmly rationally in prose shot through with instances of unexpected beauty and tenderness to a terrible climax Adelaide Advertiser A thinly disguised allegory of how easily ordinary civilised people can lose their humanity which reminded me of William Golding's Lord of the Flies Australian Financial Review A compelling grimly believable tale Guardian Its mastery lies in its mystery the skill with which it leaves things unsaid An audacious and affecting riff on the tenuousness of understanding and the frailty of good intentions What on earth will the guy do next NZ Herald Simply clearly and vividly written the moral dilemma posed in The Cage will linger long in my mind NZ Spin Off Book of the Week Lloyd Jones new and possibly best novel will hold you in its narrative grip from its first page This is exciting risk taking writing Is it a fable Probably although it's open enough for you to make your own interpretation possibly more than one Does it have antecedents Numerous Orwell with the occupants of the hotel constantly watching the occupants of the cage Cormac McCarthy's The Road with its air hopeless bleakness the Kafkaesque way unsettling events are described with deadpan detachment and all the absurdity and hopelessness of a Beckett play North South A profound and unsettling allegorical fable Its powerful message camouflaged by almost fairytale simplicity The Cage explores how quickly humanity and dignity can segue into brutality when communication breaks down Trust is revealed as fragile forever at the mercy of authoritarian impulse Qantas Magazine The puzzle of where the human essence lies and is shared is implicit in Jones dark parable Age It is also brilliant It compels and repels NZ Listener With archetypal characters and a setting that is only roughly outlined the story is contemporary yet feels out of time and place Australian Vivid and meticulous Jones has forged a piece of poetry of the most uncanny and macabre kind a timely reminder to us all that humanity cannot ever be taken for granted Observer UK The Kiwi master who brought us Mister Pip and The Book of Fame is in fine form with this unsettling new novel that begins with two mysterious strangers arriving at a hotel in a small country town Hospitality shifts to suspicion and fear in this allegorical fable like tale about humanity and dignity and the ease with which we can justify brutality Cityscape
