Ordinary Lives, Death, and Social Class Ciara Breathnach, 2022-05-26 Ordinary Lives Death and Social Class focuses on the evolution of the Dublin City Coroner's Court and on Dr Louis A Byrne's first two years in office Wrapping itself around the 1901 census the study uses gender power and blame as analytical frameworks to examine what inquests can tell us about the impact of urban living from lifecycle and class perspectives Coroners inquests are a combination of eyewitness testimony expert medico legal language detailed minutiae of people places and occupational identities pinned to a moment in time Thus they have a simultaneous capacity to reveal histories from both above and below Rich in geographical socio economic cultural class and medical detail these records collated in a liminal setting about the hour of death bear incredible witness to what has often been termed ordinary lives The subjects of Dr Byrne's court were among the poorest in Ireland and apart from common medical causes problems linked to lower socio economic groups this volume covers preventable cases of workplace accidents neglect domestic abuse and homicide

Dark Pedagogy Jonas Andreassen Lysgaard, Stefan Bengtsson, Martin Hauberg-Lund Laugesen, 2019-06-28 Dark pedagogy explores how different perspectives can be incorporated into a darker understanding of environmental and sustainability education Drawing on the work of the classic horror author H P Lovecraft and new materialist insights of speculative realism the authors link Lovecraft's tales of the horrible to the current spectres of environmental degradation climate change and pollution In doing so they draw parallels between how humans have always related to the horrible things that are scaled beyond our understanding and how education can respond to an era of climate catastrophe in the age of the Anthropocene A new and darker understanding of environmental and sustainability education is thus developed using the tripartite reaction pattern of denial insanity and death to frame the narrative the book subsequently examines the specific challenges of potentials of developing education and pedagogy for an age of mass extinction This unflinching book will appeal to students and scholars of dark pedagogies as well as those interested in environment and sustainability education

Teilhard de Chardin David Grumett, 2005 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin 1881 1955 has been regarded for too long as an esoteric thinker who evacuates theology by subjecting it to scientific theory There is an urgent need to reclaim him as a French catholic theologian with intellectual roots in the early twentieth century Teilhard's imaginative and inspiring work is grounded in the constructive use of biblical and patristic motifs and in his own life experiences of war exile and scientific endeavour From these he develops a distinctive philosophical theology which combines elements frequently assigned to the separate domains of philosophy of religion systematic theology and mysticism Teilhard provides a detailed theology of human embodiment and natural substances

whilst his theories of human action passion vision and virtue offer suggestive resources to pastoral theology His evolutionary cosmology and social democratic politics are discussed in their historical context and the significance of his work for the ongoing dialogue between science and religion is assessed The Japan Daily Mail ,1913 Lutheran Companion ,1898
