The Big Push:

The Big Push Cynthia Enloe, 2017-10-26 For over a century and in scores of countries patriarchal presumptions and practices have been challenged by women and their male allies Sexual harassment has entered common parlance police departments are equipped with rape kits more than half of the national legislators in Bolivia and Rwanda are women and a woman candidate won the plurality of the popular votes in the 2016 United States presidential election But have we really reached equality and overthrown a patriarchal point of view The Big Push exposes how patriarchal ideas and relationships continue to be modernized to this day Through contemporary cases and reports renowned political scientist Cynthia Enloe exposes the workings of everyday patriarchy in how Syrian women civil society activists have been excluded from international peace negotiations how sexual harassment became institutionally accepted within major news organizations or in how the UN Secretary General's post has remained a masculine domain Enloe then lays out strategies and skills for challenging patriarchal attitudes and operations Encouraging self reflection she guides us in the discomforting curiosity of reviewing our own personal complicity in sustaining patriarchy in order to withdraw our own support for it Timely and globally conscious The Big Push is a call for feminist self reflection and strategic action with a belief that exposure complements resistance

Industrialization and the Big Push Jaedo Choi, Younghun Shim, 2024-12-20 We study how one time subsidies for adoption of modern technology drove Korea's industrialization in the 1970s Leveraging unique historical data we provide causal evidence consistent with coordination failures adoption improved adopters performance and generated local spillovers with firms more likely to adopt when other local firms had already adopted We incorporate these findings into a quantitative model where the potential for multiple steady states depends on parameters mapped to the causal estimates In our calibrated model Korea's one time subsidies shifted its economy to a more industrialized steady state increasing heavy manufacturing's GDP share by 8.6% and export intensity by 16.2% Larger market access amplifies the effects of these subsidies as the gains from adoption increase with firms scale

1916 - The Big Push John Hughes-Wilson, 2019-01-16 Meet T O M Gunn at the start of World War 1 a young infantry lieutenant in the Sherwood Foresters just back on leave from India as Europe catches ablaze in the chaotic summer of 1914 The British Expeditionary Force is off to France and Gunn is determined to join the war before it's over He joins a hastily formed mixed battalion of reservists regular and territorial soldiers to find themselves pitchforked into the mayhem of the Battles of the Marne the Aisne and then the drawn out agony of Ypres as the high hopes of summer sink into the frozen trenches of the winter of 1914 But by the time of the Christmas Truce with the Germans Thaddeus Gunn and his men begin to realise that this is going to be a long war and they will be lucky to survive
