Slik Far Man Et Barn:

Architecture and Welfare Thordis Arrhenius, Ellen Braae, Guttorm Ruud, 2025-01-27 Architecture was fundamental to the realization of welfare state policy in the Nordic countries translating democratic ideals into concrete spatial materializations An inclusive notion of welfare for all was embraced by a generation of architects landscape architects and planners who labored to give physical form to ideas of equality collectivity and democracy producing a vast architectural output in Scandinavia during the postwar years Today however the architectural legacy of this era is contested Welfare for all no longer enjoys the social or political consensus it once did This publication critically engages with this contested architectural legacy and provides a nuanced portrait of postwar welfare architecture coming to terms with a contentious past and facing an uncertain future With newly commissioned photographic work by contemporary Nordic artists Based on an interdisciplinary research project by KTH Stockholm Oslo School of Architecture University of Copenhagen Internationally renowned contributors shed light on aspects of the relationship between architecture and welfare
