A Story as Sharp as a Knife Robert Bringhurst,1999-01-01 Poet and linguist Robert Bringhurst has worked for many years with these century old manuscripts which have waited until now for the broad recognition they deserve BOOK JACKET

Over the past few decades a group of writers we might call the Thinking and Singing poets have stood at the forefront of poetry in Canada These five poets Dennis Lee Don McKay Robert Bringhurst Jan Zwicky and Tim Lilburn are major voices in an era of ecological devastation and spiritual unease Their diverse questioning work suggests new ways to confront some of the most pressing issues of our time In vibrant prose Mark Dickinson explores the relationship between the lives of these poets and their writing examining their intersecting careers and friendships and the ways they learned from and challenged one another Canadian Primal uses an unconventional approach blending biography with literary analysis and drawing from meetings and correspondence with each poet over many years to trace the people and events that inspired the creation of important texts Dickinson tracks how each of the writers arrived at poetry as a way of being and at the heart of their poetics he finds both a musical intelligence and the crucial importance of the land Canadian Primal is literary biography reconceived as an adventure of the mind body and spirit Ebullient intelligent and eminently readable it reminds us that we can live on the earth in a different way true to the defining experiences of our lives surrounded by meaning and presence beyond our imagining A Precarious Enterprise Scott McIntyre,2025-09-09 A Precarious Enterprise has all of the DNA necessary for
