What Do You Say? William Stixrud, PhD, Ned Johnson, 2021-08-17
 A guide to effectively communicating with teenagers by the bestselling authors of The Self Driven Child If you're a parent you've had a moment maybe many of them when you've thought How did that conversation go so badly At some point after the sixth grade the same kid who asked why non stop at age four suddenly stops talking to you And the conversations that you wish you could have ones fueled by your desire to see your kid not just safe and healthy but passionately engaged suddenly feel nearly impossible to execute The good news is that effective communication can be cultivated learned and taught And as you get better at this so will your kids William Stixrud Ph D and Ned Johnson have 60 years combined experience talking to kids one on one and the most common question they get when out speaking to parents and educators is What do you say While many adults understand the importance and power of the philosophies behind the books that dominate the parenting bestseller list parents are often left wondering how to put those concepts into action In What Do You Say Johnson and Stixrud show how to engage in respectful and effective dialogue beginning with defining and demonstrating the basic principles of listening and speaking Then they show new ways to handle specific thorny topics of the sort that usually end in parent kid standoffs delivering constructive feedback to kids discussing boundaries around technology explaining sleep and their brains the anxiety of current events and family problem solving What Do You Say is a manual and map that will immediately transform parents ability to navigate complex terrain and train their minds and hearts to communicate ever more successfully

Kids 101 Ashley Johnson, 2016-02-24 In more than few instances we all have come across parents doing funny baby talk to their kids and puzzled why do they do it This indeed is a great way to make kids listen to them Also such baby talk will ensure that the kids don't get distracted while observing the necessary information from their parents' talk. Talking to kids in a way they like is mandatory as it directly affects the way they mould up. In life studies, it has been revealed that kids listening to more words and understating more words before they complete three years of age will help to be successful in their academics. Talking to kids is really important for every parent as they want to raise well-civilized, talented, disciplined and kind-hearted kids. The biggest challenge in talking to kids is their attention span. It is believed that the maximum attention span of a child as their parent talk is only one minute. And this one minute i.e. the first minute of your conversation decides how powerful it is going to be. For parents those who are struggling to make their kids listen to them, this book will serve as an ultimate guide to get closer to their children.
