Talking Politics A Psychological Framing Of Views From Youth In Britain:

Talking Politics Kum-Kum Bhavnani,1991 Talking Politics Kum-Kum Bhavnani,1991-06-06 Originally published in 1991 this study examines the views of politics presented by young people in contemporary Britain Bhavnani argues that previous studies of youth and youth culture were limited by too great a reliance on simple survey techniques and by lack of attention to conceptions of politics amongst young people and to politics as a series of lived relationships rather than a set of external objects Instead she uses ethnographic approaches and open response interviewing within the broad theoretical framework of social representations The political is taken to refer to the ways in which people regulate and attempt to regulate with a view to challenging unequal social relationships Within this the specific issues examined are employment unemployment youth training schemes democracy and voting racism and marriage Bhavnani s analysis organised by themes such as disposable income and social and personal control tackles questions of power in the research process and a notion of discursive configurations as distinct from social representations Young People and Politics in the UK D. Marsh,T. O'Toole,S. Jones,2006-11-28 This book examines how young people understand and live politics using innovative research methods It treats age class gender and ethnicity as political lived experiences It concludes that young people are alienated rather than apathetic and that their interests and concerns are rarely addressed within mainstream political institutions

Youth and the Global Media University of Manchester. Broadcasting Symposium,1999 Containing edited sessions from the 29th University of Manchester International Broadcasting Symposium these papers cover children s and youth broadcasting an area that has always aroused controversy among broadcasters educators and the general public Topics include new media music broadcasting images of children and young people and cultural diversity in youth broadcasting Papers and discussions from David Elstein Brian Cosgrove Anthony Wilson and Malcolm Gerri are featured The Social Psychology of Collective Action Sara Breinlinger,Caroline Kelly,2014-04-23 In recent years there has been a growth of single issue campaigns in western democracies and a proliferation of groups attempting to exert political influence and achieve social change In this context it is important to consider why individuals do or don t get involved in collective action for example in the trade union movement and the women s movement Social psychologists have an important contribution to make in addressing this question The social psychological approach directly concerns the relationship between the individual and society and a number of theories have been developed in the field particularly by contemporary European researchers Yet surprisingly there has never been until now a concerted attempt to bring these various strands of research together in a coherent detailed presentation of the social psychological approach to collective action The authors of The Social Psychology of Collective Action review and integrate a number of theories developed in this field as well as presenting their own original research and data The research discussed in the book ranges over a number of different contexts with a particular focus on women s groups organizing around issues of gender Questions addressed include why do women get involved in women s groups What part is played by experiences of discrimination in the family and in the workplace What are the benefits of group involvement How are feminist activists perceived by others who choose not to get involved Findings from questionnaires and interviews are integrated with contemporary social psychological theory especially social identity theory

Young, Female and Black Heidi Safia Mirza, 2005-07-12 First serious study of young black women Author taught Afro American Studies at Brown University USA 1988 9 Young People in Transition C. Pole, J. Pilcher, J. Williams, 2005-07-25 The essays in this collection represent a major contribution to our understanding of youth and transitions to key areas of adult citizenship including employment independent living arrangements and political participation The education of children and young people in citizenship usually emphasizes either rights or responsibilities through the concept of active citizenship The central concern of the book is to address the tensions and contradictions between the teaching of active citizenship and the real life difficulties many young people face in the practical transition to being adult citizens in modern life

Television News, Politics and Young People M. Wayne, J. Petley, C. Murray, L. Henderson, 2010-04-09 Why are young people alienated from television news This book argues that contemporary trends indicating deepening disconnection from news about public life reflect both problems in the way television news covers politics the single biggest item on the news and problems with the nature of politics itself under neo liberal capitalism Political Activism across the Life Course Sevasti-Melissa Nolas, Christos Varvantakis, Vinnarasan Aruldoss, 2019-12-18 How do people of different ages experience and engage with politics in their everyday lives and how do these experiences and engagements change over their life course and across different generations Age life course and generation have become increasing important experiences for understanding political participation and political outcomes and current policies of austerity across the world are affecting people of all ages This book contributes towards an interdisciplinary understanding of the temporalities of everyday political encounters At a time when social science is struggling to understand the rapid and unexpected changes to contemporary political landscapes the contributors to this book present examples of activism and politics across everyday experiences of homes communities online platforms local environment playgrounds and educational spaces The research takes ethnographic biographical and action research approaches and the studies described feature interlocutors as young as four and as old as ninety two who reside in European North and South America and South Asia This is an eclectic text that brings together a number of themes and ideas not typically associated with political activism and is intended for students and academic researchers across the humanities social and political sciences interested in the temporalities of everyday political participation This book was originally published as a special issue of Contemporary Social Science Asian American Studies Now Jean Yu-Wen Shen Wu, Thomas Chen, 2010-03-08 Asian American Studies Now truly represents the enormous changes occurring in Asian American communities and the world changes that require a reconsideration of how the interdisciplinary field of Asian American studies is defined and taught This comprehensive anthology arranged in four parts and featuring a stellar group of contributors summarizes and defines the current shape of this rapidly changing field addressing topics such as transnationalism U S imperialism multiracial identity racism immigration citizenship social justice and pedagogy Jean Yu wen Shen Wu and Thomas C Chen have selected essays for the significance of their contribution to the field and their clarity brevity and accessibility to readers with little to no prior knowledge of Asian American studies Featuring both reprints of seminal articles and groundbreaking texts as well as bold new scholarship Asian American Studies Now addresses the new circumstances new communities and new concerns that are reconstituting Asian America

Young People, Welfare and Crime Ross Fergusson, 2017-06-30 Offers a challenging interpretation of the ways in which young people's non participation is becoming marginalised and criminalised It re examines the causes and consequences of youth unemployment in and beyond the UK from an unusually wide range of social science disciplines and perspectives

Watching with The Simpsons Jonathan Gray, 2012-10-12 Using our favourite Springfield family as a case study Watching with The Simpsons examines the textual and social role of parody in offering critical commentary on other television programs and genres Jonathan Gray brings together textual theory discussions of television and the public sphere and ideas of parody and comedy Including primary audience research it focuses on how The Simpsons has been able to talk back to three of television's key genres the sitcom adverts and the news and on how it holds the potential to short circuit these genre's meanings power and effects by provoking reinterpretations and offering more media literate recontextualizations Examining television and media studies theory the text of The Simpsons and the show's audience Gray attempts to fully situate the show's parody and humour within the lived realities of its audiences In doing so he further explores the possibilities for popular entertainment television to discuss issues of political and social importance A must read for any student of media studies

Fear: Critical Geopolitics and Everyday Life Susan J. Smith, 2016-04-22 Fear in the twenty first century has greater currency in western societies than ever before Through scares ranging from cot death juvenile crime internet porn asylum seekers dirty bombs and avian flu we are bombarded with messages about emerging risks This book takes stock of a range of issues of fear and presents new theoretical arguments and research findings that cover topics as diverse as the war on terror the immigration crisis stranger danger global disease epidemics and sectarian violence This book charts the association of fear discourses with particular spaces times social identities and sets of geopolitical relations It examines the ways in which fear may be manufactured and manipulated for political purposes sometimes becoming a tool of repression and relates fear to political economic and social marginalization at different scales Furthermore it highlights the importance and sometimes unpredictability of everyday lived experiences of fear the many ways in which people recognize make sense of and manage fear the extent of resistance to fear the relation of fear and hope in everyday life and the role of emotions in galvanizing political and social action and change

The Nature of Adolescence John Christopher Coleman, Leo B. Hendry, 1999 Coleman and Hendry's bestselling text has now been completely revised and updated to take account of the many changes that have occurred over the last decade The book has now been reformatted into textbook style The Dynamics Of Race And Gender Haleh Afshar, Mary Maynard, 2012-10-12 During the past decade feminism and women s studies have been forced to acknowledge the diversities of women s experiences as well as the patriarchal oppression that they share The emphasis on difference has shattered the illusion of homogeneity and sisterhood which previously characterized white middle class Westernized feminist politics and analysis There is relatively little work which concentrates on the inter relationships of race and gender in general and the consequences of racism for women of different backgrounds in particular The Dynamics of Race and Gender aims to contribute to the debate and understanding in this area Emphasis has been given to age class disability race and sexuality The contributors to this volume are from different religious cultural and ethnic backgrounds giving a balanced and broad ranging perspective on this important social question Organized around three main themes which are issues of theory and method questions of identity racism and sexism at work the chapters of this book indicate how the processes of race and gender interrelate in highly complex and contradictory ways Demonstrating the benefits to be gained from analysing the interplay of various axes of differentiation in specific empirical and historical locations and in doing so under scoring the point that diversity among women cannot be seen as a static phenomenon Tax Evasion Paul Webley, 1991-08-30 This book explores tax evasion through an extensive psychological approach surveys and official records to simulate real world cases

Schooling the Nation Hania Sobhy, 2023-03-23 Uses first hand accounts from Egyptian schools to show how governance legitimation and belonging were shaped before and after the 2011 uprising Citizenship Education and the Curriculum David Scott, Helen Lawson, 2002-08-30 Citizenship education is a current concern of policymakers in various parts of the world Debates focus on modern notions of citizenship and the need for citizenship education in a rapidly changing world This need for citizenship education and corresponding definitions have changed over time but a persistent characteristic would seem to be a fear of indoctrination and a lack of a coherent vision due in part to the notion of citizenship being a contested concept Different notions of citizenship in turn underpin different theories of citizenship education and a number of commentators have examined its role and rationale at various points in time and identified ideal forms of pedagogy values skills curricular content and assessment Contributors address the following concerns universality and equal opportunity social literacy and citizenship citizenship education and curriculum race different citizenship patterns in civic education assessment cultivating respect in human relations and global citizenship education Adopting a comparative approach discussing citizenship education in New Zealand England Iceland Israel Ireland and Europe the book presents various debates and develops new frameworks for understanding the issues Explanations, Accounts, and Illusions John McClure, 1991-07-25 A survey of the major viewpoints in social psychology concerning peoples s self awareness explanations of their actions cognitive illusions and self misunderstandings Globalization Marcelo Suarez-Orozco, Desirée Qin-Hilliard, 2004-04 Publisher Description
