Talking Trees Singing Whales:

Talking Trees & Singing Whales Charles C. Case, 1985      Talking Trees & Singing Whales Charles C. Case, 1985

Hosting Earth Richard Kearney, Peter Klapes, Urwa Hameed, 2024-09-26 Hosting Earth is a timely and much needed volume in the emerging literature of environmental philosophy drawing upon art science and politics to explore alternatives to the traditional domination of nature by humans Featuring a dialogue with Mary Robinson former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights and former President of Ireland which addresses the current climate emergency this book engages the question of ecological hospitality what does it mean to be guests of the earth as well as hosts It includes chapters by cutting edge scholars in the philosophy of nature as well as artists scientists psychologists and theologians The contributors discuss proposals for a new Poetics of the Earth opening horizons beyond our perilous Anthropocene to a new Symbiocene of mutual collaboration between human and non human species Focusing on the central role that the human psyche plays in answering our current ecological emergency Hosting Earth is for anybody invested in the future of our planet and how psychological psychoanalytic and philosophical thought can reorient the current conversation about ecology      The Second Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26 Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy Howard French's The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head David Levering Lewis winner of the Pulitzer Prize From the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness comes an extraordinary account of Africa's liberation from colonial oppression a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah The Second Emancipation the second work in a trilogy from best selling author Howard W French about Africa's pivotal role in shaping world history underscores Adam Hochschild's contention that French is a modern day Copernicus The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 at its head That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa's enormous role in the birth of the modern world Determined to re create Nkrumah's life as an epic twentieth century story The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana's Gold Coast But blessed with a deep curiosity a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States Nowhere is French's consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah's early years in Depression era America especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois Garvey Fanon Padmore and C L R James who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to

Ghana in 1947 Four years later in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957 As leader of a sovereign nation Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966 Nkrumah's radical belief in pan African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history You Can Fly Like the Eagle ,

Ghana National Bibliography ,1997 Basic Camp Management Armand B. Ball,Beverly H. Ball,1990 Manage your camp more effectively with the leading textbook for camp administration courses everywhere including the American Camping Association's Basic Camp Director Course The authors seasoned and respected professionals share their expertise in seventeen insightful and newly revised chapters filled with resources useful examples and a wealth of important information on topics important to all camp administrators Camp Director's Job Leadership Styles Philosophy and Mission Participant Growth and Development Designing Your Program Personnel Organization Policies Recruitment Staff Training Supervision Performance Appraisal Selection Development and Maintenance of the Site Risk Management Records Accreditation Operation and Supervision of Central Services Marketing Business and Finance Budgeting Fund Raising Records Volunteers Legal Ramifications Committees and Boards Evaluations and Reporting Becoming a Professional It is increasingly critical for camps to prove their importance in the youth development arena by providing measurable outcomes This new edition helps you meet the needs of campers parents and staff in professional outcome driven ways in a more user and Internet friendly format Cultural Interactions Frans-Willem Korsten,2025-10-01 The common saying is that people have a culture This book argues that people live a culture which may explain why they are so affectively attached to it By considering cultural interactions on a global scale this book investigates how cultures can be understood in terms of conflict and cooperation in relation to the nation state a multiplicity of worlds society civilization and community It considers how culture is at the basis of the construction of individual and collective selves how they can come to be alienated are defined in relation to others are perhaps in comparable when they are considered to be disabled and whether we can speak of animal cultural selves and mechanical cultural selves Its twelve chapters consists of two parts each that both start with a piece of music The pieces are taken from different cultures and all connote that getting to understand cultures depends on listening first and foremost We Will Dance Our Truth David Delgado Shorter,2009 In this innovative performative approach to the expressive culture of the Yaqui Yoeme peoples of the Sonora and Arizona borderlands David Delgado Shorter provides an altogether fresh understanding of Yoeme worldviews Based on extensive field study Shorter's interpretation of the community's ceremonies and oral traditions as forms of historical inscription reveals new meanings of their legends of the Talking Tree their narrative of myth and history known as the Testamento their fabled deer dances funerary rites and church processions

The Where, The Why, and The How Jenny Volvovski, Julia Rothman, Matt Lamothe, 2012-09-14 In this New York Times bestseller you'll see star births described in pen and ink antimatter realized in collage and a hand painted black hole Discover Magazine A science book like no other The Where the Why and the How turns loose seventy five of today's hottest artists onto life's vast questions from how we got here to where we are going Inside these pages some of the biggest and smallest mysteries of the natural world are explained in essays by real working scientists which are then illustrated by artists given free rein to be as literal or as imaginative as they like The result is a celebration of the wonder that inspires every new discovery Featuring work by such contemporary luminaries as Lisa Congdon Jen Corace Neil Farber Susie Ghahremani Jeremyville and many more this is a work of scientific and artistic exploration to pique the interest of both the intellectually and imaginatively curious A work of art Pop science buffs will find the subject matter intriguing and those who admire graphic novels or comic art will find a plethora of eye candy Publishers Weekly starred review The artists created whimsical illustrations and the scientists responded with thoughtful essays Smithsonian.com Seventy five contemporary artists such as Jacob Magraw Jen Corace and Patrick Kyle were commissioned to create the book's original artwork leading to a huge variety of visual styles throughout Some illustrations are like the front cover pictured above akin to those of a beautified textbook but the most are simply works of art literal metaphorical or satiric imagery to accompany the text The Verge

The Wisdom of Trees David Macauley, Laura Pustarfi, 2025-06-01 Pioneering essays that reveal the significance of new interdisciplinary understandings of trees and forests especially in terms of their philosophical and ecological dimensions and their importance for addressing the climate emergency This is the first book to apply philosophical thinking to trees Through a series of sixteen diverse essays by leading scholars and writers along with an in depth introduction to the key issues and ideas it examines the new and emerging understanding of trees in science and society Contributors show how these developments encourage a revisioning of philosophical thought and a more sustainable relationship with trees and forests a reconceptualization with important ecological and social implications for responding to deforestation the loss of biodiversity and the climate emergency The interdisciplinary contributions in this collection investigate the many interconnected dimensions of arboreality focusing on subjects related to time mind truth memory being beauty goodness silence wisdom personhood and death The volume engages in a conversation about why trees matter how they can best be protected our obligations to them and even what or who they are Most of the chapters are informed by natural history or ecological science and many share a particular emphasis on continental philosophy and the environmental humanities

Life in the Tar Seeps Gretchen Ernster Henderson, 2023-04-25 At Great Salt Lake near Robert Smithson's iconic earthwork Spiral Jetty a motley crew of scientists

walks the mudflats to study fossils in the making This reputedly dead sea is home to tar seeps pools of raw oil nicknamed death traps that act as a preservative encasing organisms as they were in life In this spare landscape an intricate web of life unfurls Halophiles salt hungry microorganisms tint the brackish water pink and orange crystals of gypsum stud the ground glistening underfoot and pelicans and other migratory birds stop for a crucial rest Barn owls and seagulls flirt with their prey around the seeping constellations sometimes falling prey to the oil themselves Gretchen Henderson came to the tar seeps a kind of natural asphalt after recovering from being hit by a car as she walked in a crosswalk a manmade asphalt Like the spiraling artwork that made Great Salt Lake s north shore famous Henderson s associations of life and death degeneration and regeneration and injury and healing coalesced As she reexamined pressing issues that this delicate area revealed about the climate crisis her sense of ecology spiraled into other ways of perceiving the lake s entangled lives How do we move beyond narrow concepts of wounded and healed the beautiful and the ugly to care for ecosystems that evolve over time How do we confront our vulnerability to recognize kindred dynamics in our living planet Through shifting lake levels bird migrations microbial studies environmental arts and cultural histories shaped by indigenous knowledges and colonial legacies Life in the Tar Seeps contemplates the ways that others have understood this body of water enlivening more than this region alone As Henderson witnesses scientists arts curators land managers and students working collaboratively to steward a challenging place she grows to see the lake not as dead but as a watershed for shifting perceptions of any overlooked place offering a meditation on environmental healing across the planet Henderson interweaves her journey with her own vivid photographs of tar seeps and pelican death assemblages historic maps and contemporary art as a wayfinding guide for exploring places of our own

The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985      The Logic of Environmentalism Vassos Argyrou,2005-09-01 Although modernity s understanding of nature and culture has now been superseded by that of environmentalism the power to define the meaning of both and hence the meaning of the world itself remains in the same Western hands This bold argument is at the center of this provocative book that challenges the widespread assumption that environmentalism reflects a radical departure from modernity Our perception of nature may have changed the author maintains but environmentalism remains a thoroughly modernist project It reproduces the cultural logic of modernity a logic that finds meaning in unity and therefore strives to efface difference and to reconfirm the position of the West as the source of all legitimate signification

The Green Chain Mark Leiren-Young,2011-09-15 The Green Chain looks at the past present and future of forestry through interviews with environmentalists loggers scientists and others Raw log exports environmental devastation making a living all are discussed in this exploration of the problems facing our forests and the possible solutions It s an emotional topic especially in British Columbia where Greenpeace and the Raging Grannies were born but where the economy has been fuelled largely by forestry Both the logging industry and the environmental movement are facing unprecedented challenges and the world is watching to see how BC and Canada respond Mark discusses the topic with 22 eloquent knowledgeable and passionate people including ForestEthics and PowerUP Canada founder Tzeporah Berman activist Severn Cullis Suzuki author John Vaillant The Golden Spruce former Greenpeace executive and Greenspirit founder Dr Patrick Moore poet laureate and former logger George Bowering Forest Products Association of Canada president and CEO Avrim Lazar union spokesman Wade Fisher documentary filmmaker Velcrow Ripper Fierce Light The book also includes the screenplay for Leiren Young s award winning film The Green Chain Basic Skills Helpers, Grade 2

Sterbentz,2023-11-24 Binary Echoes is an extraordinary journey through a universe where the boundaries between reality and the unknown blur where characters grapple with inner demons and external forces beyond imagination This narrative explores adventure mystery and self discovery At the heart of this tale are Nova and Sol two complex protagonists whose evolution throughout the story is both compelling and deeply relatable The development of their connection are central to the narrative making the reader emotionally invested The character dynamics especially with the ever enigmatic Zeo add layers of depth and humor The world building in Binary Echoes is awe inspiring From the mystical chakra realms to the advanced AI networks and the secrets of ancient civilizations every detail is meticulously crafted and described with vivid imagery The story masterfully balances between the metaphysical and the technological creating an immersive experience that keeps you turning pages The novel explores themes of technology s impact on society and the environment The Quantum Simulation Orbs QSOs are a significant technological marvel in the story designed for escapism and amusement These Orbs powered by immense fusion reactors bring to life virtual landscapes that captivate people worldwide However it also touches on the consequences of such technological dependence as seen through the challenges faced by a technologically advanced town Environmental themes are evident in the depiction of the Great Freeze a cataclysmic event that leads to dramatic ecological changes and the formation of tight knit communities focused on survival and resource sharing The resilience and adaptability of humans in the face of adversity are highlighted as seen in the efforts of Mila and Sasha two characters who contribute their DNA to a radical project aimed at preserving human life It s a philosophical exploration of human nature consciousness and the interconnectedness of all things It challenges readers to ponder profound questions about the universe and our place within it Also this is the backstory to the video game lerp io

Animal Voices Dawn Baumann Brunke, 2002-05-01 Animals ranging from mosquitoes to elephants use their own words to guide humanity to a deeper spiritual awakening Contains interviews with 25 professional animal communicators and over 100 different animals and animal spirits Provides a thrilling glimpse of the possibilities of direct animal human dialogue According to Echo an Arabian mare Humans are beings of love who have forgotten what love is and who they are Along with a host of other animal communicators Dawn Baumann Brunke gives animals like Echo a voice a direct line of communication to the human mind Through Animal Voices the animal kingdom delivers a message about deepening our spirituality and reconnecting with the web of life Our earliest ancestors had an ongoing shamanic dialogue with the animal kingdom but this ability has been lost to most in the modern world Brunke provides the techniques to reopen these connections reminding us that when we are open to communication with animals we are open to deeper layers of ourselves The main contributors to this book are actual animals who reveal themselves to be sentient beings with their own thoughts emotions and spiritual reasons for being on the planet How Brunke overcame her initial skepticism and learned to hear their voices is a fascinating story Throughout Animal Voices the author integrates her own reflections with those of the animals she interviews The result is something that will delight animal lovers and force skeptics to reconsider their ideas about the nature of animal consciousness and the possibility of telepathic human animal communication
