Jewish Concepts of Scripture Benjamin D. Sommer, 2012-01-01 What do Jews think scripture is How do the People of the Book conceive of the Book of Books In what ways is it authoritative Who has the right to interpret it Is it divinely or humanly written And have Jews always thought about the Bible in the same way In seventeen cohesive and rigorously researched essays this volume traces the way some of the most important Jewish thinkers throughout history have addressed these questions from the rabbinic era through the medieval Islamic world to modern Jewish scholarship They address why different Jewish thinkers writers and communities have turned to the Bible and what they expect to get from it Ultimately argues editor Benjamin D Sommer in understanding the ways Jews construct scripture we begin to understand the ways Jews construct themselves

Agnon's Moonstruck Lovers Ilana Pardes, 2014-02-01 Agnon's Moonstruck Lovers explores the response of Israel's Nobel laureate S Y Agnon to the privileged position of the Song of Songs in Israeli culture Standing at a unique crossroads between religion and secularism Agnon probes the paradoxes and ambiguities of the Zionist hermeneutic project In adopting the Song Zionist interpreters sought to return to the erotic pastoral landscapes of biblical times Their quest for a new uplifting secular literalism however could not efface the haunting impact of allegorical configurations of love With superb irony Agnon's tales recast Israeli biblicism as a peculiar chapter within the ever surprising history of biblical exegesis

Art and the Artist in the Contemporary Israeli Novel Joseph Lowin, 2016-12-21 Art and the Artist in the Contemporary Israeli Novel presents studies of eight contemporary works of Israeli fiction by eight major Israeli novelists It deals with a society where drama lived in reality but also in the mind is a central moving force What this book shows is the ways these texts deal with the themes of creativity and the creation of a work of art and with the way art and artists are portrayed in a culture that is often perceived as being otherwise preoccupied The book involves close and painstaking readings of these novels and travels along a broad spectrum of themes It also shows how these texts engage in dialogue with texts of the Jewish tradition on the one hand and on the other hand with each other Two major points of the book are its emphasis on the work as literary art and the way the same themes often find their way into the varied works created by this literary generation The book notes two tendencies among Israeli writers that there is a great urge to tell their story and the story of Israel and that to make clear not only what is happening in these novels but also what is going on in their works of art the novelist take the leisurely route of literary emerging slowly but surely leading the reader to see how art emerges from the most prosaic of events Despite its easygoing tone the book still claims to be a serious book dealing with serious issues both ethical and metaphysical One of the cases this book endeavors to make is that one of the main goals of contemporary Israeli writers is to insert their works of art via a midrashic mode of writing in which previous texts are constantly being re written and being made modern as links in the great chain of the Jewish textual tradition These novels often refer back to biblical tales and to rabbinic ways of reading them But they also demonstrate how the writers themselves and their books and are also a part of that tradition Most of all however these writers are supremely aware that they are artists and that they have a particular responsibility to their art

Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin, 2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain
