Tanganyika Rifles Mutiny, January 1964 Tanzania People's Defence Forces, 1998 Tanganyika Rifles Mutiny
Tanzania. Peoples Defence Force, 1993 The 1964 mutiny of the army in the then Tanganyika has remained an enigma Was it a mutiny or a coup Was it a worker s strike Who was the principal actor who ruled the country during that week where was the President and who called in the British Commandos to quell the mutiny These questions are faced squarely and it is argued that the colonial military establishments inherited at independence were quasi mercenary armies modelled on the British command structure And despite other influences the military intervention was a rebellion against the British command structure The imperialist dimension of the issue is emphasised including the irony of Tanganyika seeking the aid of the former imperial power to force their own troops to submit to African rule Dissent, Protest and Dispute in Africa Toyin Falola, Emmanuel Mbah, 2016-12-19 This book provides unique and detailed perspectives on different aspects of dissent protest and disputes and how these have in turn continued to pose challenges in Africa The contributors argue that dissent protest and most forms of disputes in Africa are the result of daily challenges that its people have faced and continue to encounter to this day These challenges include amongst others demands for transparency good governance and accountability waves of instability that have created insecurity in most parts of the continent an unsustainable level of youth unemployment rapid population growth a continent wide healthcare and poverty crises and numerous environmental challenges The chapters elevate the debates on dissent protest and disputes conflict in Africa by adding new ideas and introducing new and useful interpretations The book s strength lies in the contributors ability to conflate colonial and postcolonial tendencies to show how challenges of the past are not so different from those of today while also presenting important historical issues from various scholarly perspectives Dissent Protest and Dispute in Africa will be of interest for students and scholars of African history politics and culture as well as those interested in social movements and civil society
 The Dar Mutiny of 1964 Tony Laurence, 2010 Originally published Brighton England Book Guild 2007 Dancing with Destiny Urmila Jhaveri, 2014-02-10 Our forefathers from India sailed by dhow to Africa in search of adventure and greener pastures Often these young pioneers arrived in East Africa as teenagers with stars shining in their eyes and little else in their pockets And all of them have a fascinating story to tell My parents were also one such family I grew up in Dar es Salaam and got married and we personally participated in momentous events taking place in Tanzania I have endeavored to draw a word picture of our experiences and present this memoir as my tribute to all those who are young at heart Generations Past Andrew Burton, Hélène Charton-Bigot, 2010-09-15 Contemporary Africa is demographically characterized above all else by its youthfulness In East Africa the median age of the population is now a striking 17 5 years and more than 65 percent of the population is age 24 or under This situation has attracted growing scholarly attention resulting in an important and rapidly expanding literature on the position of youth in African societies While the scholarship examining the contemporary role of youth in African societies is rich and growing the historical dimension has been largely neglected in the literature thus far Generations Past seeks to address this gap through a wide ranging selection of essays that covers an array of youth related themes in historical perspective Thirteen chapters explore the historical dimensions of youth in nineteenth twentieth and twenty first century Ugandan Tanzanian and Kenyan societies Key themes running through the book include the analytical utility of youth as a social category intergenerational relations and the passage of time youth as a social and political problem sex and gender roles among East African youth and youth as historical agents of change The strong list of contributors includes prominent scholars of the region and the collection encompasses a good geographical spread of all three East African countries

The Soldier and the Changing State Zoltan D. Barany, 2012-09-16 Looking at how armies supportive of democracy are built this title argues that the military is the important institution that states maintain for without military elites who support democratic governance democracy cannot be consolidated It demonstrates that building democratic armies is the quintessential task of democratizing regimes

Race, Nation, and Citizenship in Postcolonial Africa Ronald Aminzade, 2013-10-31 Nationalism has generated violence bloodshed and genocide as well as patriotic sentiments that encourage people to help fellow citizens and place public responsibilities above personal interests This study explores the contradictory character of African nationalism as it unfolded over decades of Tanzanian history in conflicts over public policies concerning the rights of citizens foreigners and the nation s Asian racial minority These policy debates reflected a history of racial oppression and foreign domination and were shaped by a quest for economic development racial justice and national self reliance

Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania, 1920-1971 Ellen R. Feingold, 2018-02-09 This book is the first study of the development and decolonization of a British colonial high court in Africa It traces the history of the High Court of Tanzania from its establishment in 1920 to the end of its institutional process of decolonization in 1971 This process involved disentangling the High Court from colonial state structures and imperial systems that were built on racial inequality while simultaneously increasing the independence of the judiciary and application of British judicial principles Feingold weaves together the rich history of the Court with a discussion of its judges both as members of the British Colonial Legal Service and as individuals to explore the impacts and intersections of imperial policies national politics and individual initiative Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania is a powerful reminder of the crucial roles played by common law courts in the operation and legitimization of both colonial and post colonial states

Memories of German Colonialism in Tanzania Reginald Elias Kirey,2023-08-21 German colonial history in today Tanzania Mainland is extensively documented but it has not been studied from its memory perspective despite it being widely remembered among the Tanzanians This book documents German colonial memories as shared cultural legacy that exists in forms of monuments archives and historical sites It also presents them as trans generational memory narratives that live in people s memories that are also commemorated in different ways like erection of war monuments The book analyzes memories of colonialism from the historical perspective showing how the collective memories like monuments and commemorations have undergone structural and institutional changes over time The study uses Michael Rothberg s multi directional theory together with other theoretical approaches to analyze various forms of German colonial memories in Tanzanian context The findings which are analyzed historically indicate that the collective memories of the Germans are cultural communicative commemorative functional and topographical They are also traumatic as well as nostalgic
