Meditation The Dalai Lama,2017-04-11 The Dalai Lama reveals how training the mind in compassion for other beings is directly related to and a prerequisite for the very pinnacle of Buddhist meditation The heart of meditation the thing that brings it alive is compassion This is not an ordinary compassion but one that is developed and expanded in parallel with wisdom that arises through meditation Without that essential foundation other practices are pointless Fortunately the mind can be trained in compassion and the mind thus trained is fertile ground for the practice of the Great Completeness Dzogchen which is considered the pinnacle of spiritual practice by many in Tibetan Buddhism In this book His Holiness the Dalai Lama teaches the Great Completeness simply but thoroughly using as his reference a visionary poem by the nineteenth century master Patrul Rinpoche to show that insight can never be separated from compassion Through practice of the Great Completeness we can access our innermost awareness and live our lives in a way that acknowledges it and manifests it The wisdom and compassion that arise from such insight are critical His Holiness teaches not only to individual progress in meditation but to our collective progress toward peace in the world Mind Seeing Mind Roger R.
