Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence On Tap Mark McKay, 1999

The nineteenth century squatter and painter Duncan Elphinstone Cooper spent about thirteen years of his life in the Western District of Victoria where he painted the fifty four pictures presented in this volume Most of these are from Cooper's The Chalicum Sketch Book now a treasured part of the collections of the National Library of Australia the paintings deal almost exclusively with the grazing property of that name from tent to house and beyond Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia, 1910 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, The Desert Railway Patsy Adam-Smith, 1974 Australian Folklore, 2001 The Vision Splendid Stephanie Owen Reeder, 2011

The Vision Splendid features the sketchbooks of 22 nineteenth century artists ranging from well known professionals like Eugene von Gu rard and John Glover to amateurs about whom little is known These artists engineers surveyors military men solicitors public servants and pastoralists all delighted in recording what they saw and then sharing it with family friends and the wider public The sketches reveal what colonial life in Australia was like at that time both in the country and in the city and the challenges the artists faced depicting landscapes that were so different from those in Europe

In The Midst Of Life Des Tobin, Graeme M Griffin, 2013-03-01 This is a thoroughly useful authoritative and compassionate book about the last taboo subject death In exploring our responses to death it reveals a great deal about Australian society There is grim humour in the practical details of burial in the days of pick and shovel and a priest if you were lucky Stories of elaborate Victorian mourning etiquette of poignant personal histories recorded on gravestones of vehement debates about cremation and much more make good reading The authors a theologian and a funeral director use this frank social history to look at questions we often avoid What is grief How can we help ourselves and others through it What choices do we have for farewelling our loved ones Are the rituals of churches funeral parlours and cemeteries flexible enough to meet our endlessly varied needs Both professional and general readers will find many answers and yet more questions in this informative and reassuring book

The Aborigines of Tasmania's Furneaux Group Paul Tapp, 2013-09-06 A composite of accounts of whaling and sealing including the A L Meston essay on Half castes of the Furneaux Group They came from across the globe in tall ships in billowing sails iconic of an era hell bent on supplying the colonies and the giant cities of the northern hemisphere with their insatiable industrial needs The many out of print publications to which I have referred are conservative in their appraisal of the sealing and whaling hey day of Tasmania particularly the expansive bays and estuaries of the south and the islands of Bass Strait the Furneaux Group But it was the universal expression of the day of those authors not to paraphrase in any emotional terms the end result of that period of exploitation They came they slaughtered and regarded their new found paradise as no more than their happy hunting grounds moved on for no other reason than that of the industrial pragmatic there was nothing left This publication salvages works otherwise lost to posterity
