Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 An autobiography William Henry Seward, 1891 Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1980 Rudyard Kipling: Something of Myself and Other Autobiographical Writings Rudyard Kipling, 1991-06-28 Rudyard Kipling s autobiography Something of Myself was the author s last work but it has not received the serious attention it deserves Thomas Pinney s edition of the work supplemented by other autobiographical pieces aims to change that Professor Pinney a leading textual editor currently engaged on Kipling s letters has consulted the available source material relating to Something of Myself He has constructed an outline of the book s composition described the history of its publication established a text and a set of variants and given a critical account of the book s design and its main themes His annotations to the work and to the supplementary pieces identify references and allusions and provide a biographical context against which Kipling s selections omissions and distortions may clearly be seen The extent to which Kipling s description of his life failed to match what actually happened is extraordinary Two of the additional items presented here Kipling s Indian diary of 1885 and the illustrations he made for his autobiographical story Baa Baa Black Sheep are previously unpublished Pinney shows how they and other forms of autobiographical writing reflect upon or complicate the narrative of Something of Myself This carefully prepared edition sheds new light on Kipling as a man

A Mad People's History of Madness Dale Peterson, 1982 A man desperately tries to keep his pact with the Devil; a woman is imprisoned in an insane asylum by her husband because of religious differences; and on the testimony of a mere stranger, a London citizen is sentenced to a private madhouse. This anthology of writings by mad and allegedly mad people is a comprehensive overview of the history of mental illness for the past five hundred years from the viewpoint of the patients themselves. Dale Peterson has compiled twenty-seven selections dating from 1436 through 1976. He prefaces each excerpt with biographical information about the writer. Peterson's running commentary explains the national differences in mental health care and the historical changes that have taken place in symptoms and treatment. He traces the development of the private madhouse system in England and the state-run asylum system in the United States. Included is the first comprehensive bibliography of writings by the mentally ill. The New York Times Book Review, 1977

The Cigarette Book Chris Harrald, Fletcher Watkins, 2010-11-01 From A is for Aardvark (We're not allowed to tell you anything about Winston cigarettes, so here's a stuffed aardvark) to Z is for Zippo (the iconic American lighter), The Cigarette Book is the ultimate souvenir and celebration of the dying art of smoking. Encyclopedic in both layout and range, this is an ideal consolation gift for those who have stopped, an ideal aide de memoir for those who might, and a defiant puff of libertarian brilliance for those who won't. Celebrate the Hollywood age of smoking when film stars lit up with glamorous abandon. Witty, illustrated, collectible, and up to date. All smokers know that cigarettes are dangerous Each one is a dance with death and the defiant smoker will say that therein lies its charm So each puff is an existential gesture an assertion of choice and life in the face of death One day the last cigarette on earth will be smoked One final puff will be sent heaven bound leaving a lingering evanescent smoke ring And the wise of this world will rejoice Because logic demands that mankind is rid of this pernicious poison And wasn't that well known logician Adolf Hitler the most virulent opponent of cigarette smoking in the last century Until then read this book The Autobiography Frank O'Connor, 2014-08-12 Frank O'Connor's acclaimed autobiography now in one volume When Frank O'Connor was born his parents Minnie O'Connor a former maid raised in an orphanage and Michael O'Donovan a veteran of the Boer War and the drummer in a local brass and reed band lived above a sweet and tobacco shop in Cork Ireland The young family soon moved however to a two room cottage at the top of Blarney Street a lane that originates as O'Connor so vividly describes it near the river bank in sordidness and ascends the hill to something like squalor From this unlikely beginning a poor boy born Michael Francis Xavier O'Donovan set out on the remarkable journey that transformed him into Frank O'Connor one of Ireland's greatest writers An Only Child the first installment of O'Connor's wonderfully evocative autobiography captures the joy and pain of his early years joy in the colorful people and places of Cork and in his devoted relationship with his mother pain in the family's impoverished situation and in his father's melancholy moods and drunken outbursts Fifteen years old when he joins the Irish Republican Army in the fight for independence O'Connor finds himself on the losing side of the ensuing civil war and is imprisoned by the government of the new nation My Father's Son begins with his release from an internment camp and follows him to Dublin and the world renowned Abbey Theatre where he meets W.B. Yeats J.M. Synge and other members of the Irish Literary Revival and takes the first steps toward becoming one of the twentieth century's most beloved authors As richly detailed and eloquent as the best of his short fiction Frank O'Connor's autobiography is an entertaining portrait of a fascinating time and place and the inspiring account of a young artist finding his voice William H.
