The Haunted Inkwell Art And Our Future:

The Haunted Inkwell Mark Patrick Hederman, 2001 The future is in our hands It is a precious gift that we can squander abuse exploit or distort at will There are many imperatives and considerations that should determine the steps forward we take but prominent among these should be the voice of artists and the educating influence of art This is not the only factor but it should be a decisive one Art can provide accurate and unflinching cardiography of the present with a prognosis of possibilities for the future which politicians and leaders ignore at their peril Taking a line from James Joyce as his title the author shows how art can be our compass in destitute times He uses the works of Seamus Heaney James Joyce Rainer Maria Rilke Wole Soyinka and Iris Murdoch to illustrate how this can be done

Iris Murdoch and the Western Theological Imagination Miles Leeson, Frances White, 2025-07-26 Scholarly interest in theological aspects of Murdoch's fiction and philosophy took off slowly It was thirty years after her writing debut that the first work taking detailed notice of the theological language deployed by this overtly atheist author appeared and it was a further decade before theologians began to engage with Murdoch's work together But it was not until the twenty first century that this aspect of Murdoch's thought and imagination began to receive sustained attention This collection seeks to build on this foundation begun forty years ago and to expand the work in this area of Murdoch studies which has lately been gathering momentum This project consolidates earlier discussion of the vital part theology plays in Murdoch's thought and then takes the debate in new directions Contributors include a wide range of current Murdoch scholars from diverse disciplines who develop debate about this subject in a variety of innovative and fruitful ways to inspire future works in this area of Murdoch studies Iris Murdoch and Harry Weinberger Rebecca Moden, 2023-03-03 The novelist and philosopher Iris Murdoch and the painter Harry Weinberger engaged in over twenty years of close friendship and intellectual discourse centred on sustained discussion of the practice teaching and morality of art This book presents a reappraisal of Murdoch's novels chiefly three mature novels The Sea 1978 Nuns and Soldiers 1980 and The Good Apprentice 1985 and two enigmatic late novels The Green Knight 1993 and Jackson's Dilemma 1995 which are perceived through the prism of her discourse with Weinberger It draws on a run of almost 400 letters from Murdoch to Weinberger and on Murdoch's philosophical writings Weinberger's private writings the remarks of both artists in interviews and other material relating to their views on art and art history much of which is unpublished and has received no previous critical attention Scrutiny of their shared values methods and the imagistic dialogue that takes place in their art provides original perspectives on Murdoch's creativity and new ways of understanding her experimentation with the visual arts This book offers a new line of enquiry into Murdoch's novels and into the relationship between literature and the visual arts The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature Thinking Film Richard Kearney, Murray Littlejohn, 2023-06-29 Hailed as one of America's original art forms film has the distinctive character of crossing high and low art But film has done more than this According to American philosopher Stanley Cavell film was also a place where America in the 1930s and 1940s did its thinking a tradition that was taken up and enriched throughout world cinema Can film indeed think That is can film do the work of philosophy Following Cavell's lead to think along the tear of the analytic continental traditions this book draws from both sides of the philosophical divide to reflect on this question Spanning generations and disciplines pondering everything from art house classics to mainstream blockbusters Thinking Film Philosophy at the Movies aims to fling open the doors to this conversation on all sides Inquiring into both philosophy's word on film and film's word to philosophy the interdisciplinary dialogue of this book traverses the conceptual and the particular as it considers how film catalyzes our thinking and sets us talking After viewing the world through film we find our world and ourselves transformed by deeper understanding and new possibilities This book aims to provide a novel and engaging way in to thinking with and about this enduringly popular art form Iris Murdoch and Remorse Frances White, 2023-11-24 This exploration of the crucially important role played by remorse in Iris Murdoch's philosophical theological and political thinking identifies it as a critical concept in her moral psychology and a recurrent theme in her art Through engagement with Simone Weil current theories of remorse trauma theory and Holocaust studies it offers fresh perspectives on Murdoch's
