Broken Trust Samuel P. King, Randall W. Roth, 2006-01-31 Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop was the largest landowner and richest woman in the Hawaiian kingdom Upon her death in 1884 she entrusted her property known as Bishop Estate to five trustees in order to create and maintain an institution that would benefit the children of Hawai'i Kamehameha Schools A century later Bishop Estate controlled nearly one out of every nine acres in the state a concentration of private land ownership rarely seen anywhere in the world Then in August 1997 the unthinkable happened Four revered kupuna native Hawaiian elders and a professor of trust law publicly charged Bishop Estate trustees with gross incompetence and massive trust abuse Entitled Broken Trust the statement provided devastating details of rigged appointments violated trusts cynical manipulation of the trust's beneficiaries and the shameful involvement of many of Hawai'i's powerful No one is better qualified to examine the events and personalities surrounding the scandal than two of the original Broken Trust authors Their comprehensive account together with historical background brings to light information that has never before been made public including accounts of secret meetings and communications involving Supreme Court justices Understanding American History Through Children's Literature Maria Perez-Stable, Mary H. Cordier, 1994 Students connect with Americans of the past through quality works of fiction nonfiction biography folktale and legend American history ceases to be remote and unfamiliar and becomes the story of real individuals colonists pioneers Native Americans immigrants with diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds This book is an excellent support for a literature based history or social studies curriculum This book closely integrates American history and children s literature by combining the best features of an annotated bibliography of children s historical literature with the best features of a teaching guide Ten Traditional Tellers Margaret Read MacDonald, 2006 In this unique collection of stories and personal interviews folklorist Margaret Read MacDonald examines storytelling through the distinct voices of the tellers themselves Ten Traditional Tellers offers an intimate look at their lives and art as they discuss their reasons for telling their uses of the stories and the influence of their cultural heritage Coming from places such as Ghana Brazil and Thailand the tellers include colorful characters like Vi Hilbert a member of the Upper Skagit tribe who continues to work despite near blindness and Rinjing Dorje whose bawdy shepherd tales shock his audiences and validate his identity in a western culture that expects piousness from Tibetans In addition to the interviews the book also includes brief introductions for each teller and one or two of their representative stories Lost Generations J. Arthur Rath, 2006-01-01 During the Depression years J Arthur Rath spent his early childhood shuttled between relatives and foster parents in Hawai i and on the mainland while his single mother Hualani struggled to make a living After the attack on Pearl Harbor his grandparents sent him to the Big Island and Konawaena School where he heard the Kamehameha Schools boy choir at a school assembly The performance made a deep impression on Rath and a year later in 1944 he entered Kamehameha as an eighth grade boarder Thus began Rath s love affair with an institution that he credits with turning his life around with giving him and other disadvantaged children of native ancestry Hawai i s lost generations the confidence and support necessary to make something of themselves This is the story of that love affair It is also the story of Rath s recent battle together with other alumni for the integrity of his beloved Kamehameha against the school s trustees and their organization the powerful Bishop Estate Intelligent and impressionable Rath spent an idyllic four years at Kamehameha In a lively talk story manner he reminisces about campus life and his classmates many of whom became lifelong friends and influential members of the Hawaiian community Don Ho Nona Beamer Oswald Stender Tom Hugo William Fernandez Years later Rath a successful retired businessman would call on these same friends to hold Kamehameha s trustees accountable for their mismanagement of Bishop Estate s vast financial holdings and ultimately their failure to carry out founder Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop s mandate to educate Hawaiian children Rath draws on his many personal ties to the school and the estate to provide surprising revelations on the trustees and the Bishop Estate Scandal which made headlines daily throughout the mid 1990s
