Gender and Identity in Franz Grillparzer's Classical Dramas Alicia E. Ellis,2021-06-10 In this provocative work Alicia E Ellis provides readings of Franz Grillparzer s dramas as proto feminist formulations of female figures who refuse the gendered constraints of the ancient world The revisionist perspectives of the tragedies recover a latent feminist impulse in the stories of Sappho Medea and Hero as identities marked by linguistic refusals Activating new ideas of narrative experience Ellis transports the figure of the female to the seat of language testimony and presence Inflected by a taut impasse with a culture not produced to include female speech Ellis shows how Grillparzer s adaptations of classical materials offer a working theory about the ways in which new forms of language highlight female energy around autonomy and agency providing a corrective to previous cultural practices A failure to comply with social and political norms demonstrates how the three assessed and then resolved exclusionary acts through rebellious discursive performances that frame how contested
