Pevsner: The Complete Broadcast Talks Mr Stephen Games, 2014-05-28 This book brings together the surviving texts of the 113 talks on art and architecture that we know of, given by the art historian Sir Nikolaus Pevsner on radio and television between 1945-1977. It includes the seven texts of the 1955 Reith Lectures in their original broadcast form as well as lectures that Pevsner gave in German for the BBC in London and RIAS in Berlin and on the radio in New Zealand. These talks are important as an example of the attempt by the BBC in particular to provide intellectual programming for the mass population. The talks are important for what they reveal about changing tastes in the treatment of the arts as a broadcast topic as well as offering a case study of the development of one particular historian's approach to a subject that was gaining ground in universities as a direct result of his popularisation of it. They show what topics were thought to be central to the artistic agenda in the mid-years of the last century, whether from an academic or journalistic perspective, and reveal the mode and manner of academic engagement with the public over the period. Forty-six of these talks were published in 2002 on the centenary of Pevsner's birth in a trade edition. At the time, his reputation as an active force in architectural thinking had long been eclipsed and interest in him had waned. Since then, there has been a turn around in tastes and Pevsner's role within his chosen field is now being actively studied and discussed by a new generation for whom he is central to an understanding of the 20th century. There is therefore a real need for this book. In addition to containing twice the number of talks as the previous volume, it is supplemented with explanatory introductions, footnotes, and citations. It also reveals as far as this is possible alternative versions of Pevsner's texts as they appeared at different stages in the original production process. As such, this edition can be relied on by academics as scholarly and definitive.

Islam and Nazi Germany's War David Motadel, 2014-11-30 Winner of the Ernst Fraenkel Prize, Wiener Holocaust Library, An Open Letters Monthly Best History Book of the Year, A New York Post Must Read. In the most crucial phase of the Second World War, German troops confronted the Allies across lands largely populated by Muslims. Nazi officials saw Islam as a powerful force with the same enemies as Germany: the British Empire, the Soviet Union, and the Jews. Islam and Nazi Germany's War is the first comprehensive account of Berlin's remarkably ambitious attempts to build an alliance with the Islamic world. Motadel describes the Mufti's Nazi dealings vividly. Impeccably researched and clearly written, his book will transform our understanding of the Nazi policies.

that were Motadel writes some of the most vigorous attempts to politicize and instrumentalize Islam in modern history Dominic Green Wall Street Journal Motadel s treatment of an unsavory segment of modern Muslim history is as revealing as it is nuanced Its strength lies not just in its erudite account of the Nazi perception of Islam but also in illustrating how the Allies used exactly the same tactics to rally Muslims against Hitler With the specter of Isis haunting the world it contains lessons from history we all need to learn Ziauddin Sardar The Independent Alzheimer Talk, Text and Context B.
