Talking Up Young Womens Take On Feminism:

Talking Up Rosamund Else-Mitchell, Naomi Flutter, 1998 Annotation Covers a diversity of themes including relationships between older and younger women and feminists experiences of young migrant women the marginalization of non white and lesbian women and the emerging role of young women in corporate legal and educational institutions Mediating Australian Feminism Anthea Taylor, 2008 Helen Garner s The First Stone 1995 a non fictional book about a sexual harassment case at a University of Melbourne residential college captured and maintained the Australian media s attention in an unprecedented way Its publication sparked extensive media commentary regarding an alleged generational war within Australian feminism While talkback radio current affairs television and cultural events such as literary festivals and forums all took part in this heated public contest over the meanings of feminism this book reconsiders how the debate played out in the Australian print media Analysing texts as diverse as feature articles and opinion pieces non fiction by young feminists letters to the editor celebrity feminist profiles and articles as well as The First Stone itself this book offers the first in depth analysis of this debate as a media event Refusing to adopt either a condemnatory or celebratory approach to the complex relationship between feminism and media culture it argues that the First Stone media event is indicative of the limitations and the opportunities proffered by the mediatisation of contemporary feminism Mediating Australian Feminism provides insights that will be valuable to scholars interested in feminism journalism and news culture literary reception and the politics of media representation Neoliberalism and its Impact on the Women's Movement in Aotearoa/New Zealand Julia Schuster, 2022-02-28 This book investigates how neoliberalism shaped the women s movement in Aotearoa New Zealand from the mid 1980s to late 2010s and looks at the future of the movement Based on an empirical study that encompasses the three levels of the movement individualised feminism the work of women s organisations and state feminism it explores how neoliberal rationality promoted by governments over three decades has impacted feminist identification and activism as well as political opportunities for organisations and institutions working within the movement Exploring the diversity of feminist voices the author analyses intersectional post colonial and intergenerational debates within the movement in the context of neoliberalism s influence on feminist values and strategies and examines whether neoliberal rationality succeeded in depoliticising individualising and fragmenting the movement The book comes to the conclusion that despite some severe drawbacks internal conflicts and changes of strategies the women s movement in Aotearoa New Zealand has survived the impact of neoliberalism This book will be of interest to scholars of Gender Studies Sociology Political Science and Women s History as well as feminist activists Not My Mother's Sister Astrid Henry, 2004-09-07 No matter how wise a mother s advice is we listen to our peers At least that s writer Naomi Wolf s take on the differences between her generation of feminists the third wave and the feminists who came before her and developed in the late 60s and 70s the second wave In Not My Mother s Sister Astrid Henry agrees with Wolf that this has been the case with American feminism but says there are problems inherent in drawing generational lines Henry begins by examining texts written by women in the second wave and illustrates how that generation identified with yet also disassociated itself from its feminist foremothers Younger feminists now claim the movement as their own by distancing themselves from the past By focusing on feminism's debates about sexuality they are able to reject the so called victim feminism of Catherine MacKinnon and Andrea Dworkin Rejecting the orthodoxies of the second wave younger feminists celebrate a woman's right to pleasure Henry asserts however that by ignoring diverse older voices the new generation has oversimplified generational conflict and has underestimated the contributions of earlier feminists to women's rights They have focused on issues relating to personal identity at the expense of collective political action Just as writers like Wolf Katie Roiphe and Rene Denfeld celebrate a new feminist heterosexuality posited in generational terms queer and lesbian feminists of the third wave similarly distance themselves from those who came before Henry shows how 1970s lesbian feminism is represented in ways that are remarkably similar to the puritanical portrait of feminism offered by straight third wavers She concludes by examining the central role played by feminists of color in the development of third wave feminism Indeed the term third wave itself was coined by Rebecca Walker daughter of Alice Walker Not My Mother's Sister is an important contribution to the exchange of ideas among feminists of all ages and persuasions

The Routledge Companion to Media & Gender Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, Lisa McLaughlin, 2013-12-13 The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender offers a comprehensive examination of media and gender studies charting its histories investigating ongoing controversies and assessing future trends The 59 chapters in this volume written by leading researchers from around the world provide scholars and students with an engaging and authoritative survey of current thinking in media and gender research The Companion includes the following features With each chapter addressing a distinct concrete set of issues the volume includes research from around the world to engage readers in a broad array of global and transnational issues and intersectional perspectives Authors address a series of important questions that have consequences for current and future thinking in the field including postfeminism sexual violence masculinity media industries queer identities video games digital policy media activism sexualization docusoaps teen drama cosmetic surgery media Islamophobia sport telenovelas news audiences pornography and social and mobile media A range of academic disciplines inform exploration of key issues around production and policymaking representation audience engagement and the place of gender in media studies The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender is an essential guide to the central ideas concepts and debates currently shaping media and gender research

Power, Profit and Protest Verity Burgmann, 2020-08-04 a provocative must read text for an engaged public offering a distinctive Australian take on corporate globalism and grounding this in a robust theory of social change that emphasises material power and interests along with symbolic power and ideology James Goodman University of Technology Sydney Social movements transformed Western societies in the 1960s and 1970s feminism black rights the peace movement and gay liberation all radically altered how we think and how we live What has happened to social movements since then Can demonstrations and other forms of social activism still make a difference in Australia Verity Burgmann argues that corporate globalisation has threatened or transformed established social movements and sparked powerful new forms of social protest She examines the impact of globalisation and neo liberal government policies on the feminist and indigenous rights movements showing how they have been affected by the politics of backlash after decades of success She explores the way in which the environment movement too has been affected by rising corporate political influence She also analyses the emergence of anti capitalist and anti corporate activism and the profound challenges posed by this newest of social movements to the state to society in general and to the labour movement in particular These important factors in a changing political landscape This book reflects on the significant changes which has taken place since Power and Protest was published in 1993

Feminist Movements in Contemporary Japan Laura Dales, 2009-06-26 The book investigates the features and effects of feminism in contemporary Japan in non government NGO women s groups government run women s centres and the individual activities of feminists Based on two years of fieldwork conducted in Japan and drawing on extensive interviews and ethnographic data it argues that the work of individual activists and women s organisations in Japan promotes real and potential change to gender roles and expectations among Japanese women

The Women's Movement in Protest, Institutions and the Internet Sarah Maddison, Marian Sawyer, 2013-08-15 The death of feminism is regularly proclaimed in the West Yet at the same time feminism has never had such an extensive presence whether in international norms and institutions or online in blogs and social networking campaigns This book argues that the women s movement is not over but rather social movement theory has led us to look in the wrong places This book offers both methodological and theoretical innovations in the study of social movements and analyses how the trajectories of protest activity and institution building fit together The rich empirical study together with focused research on discursive activism blogging popular culture and advocacy networks provides an extraordinary resource showing how the women s movements can survive the highs and lows and adapt in unexpected ways Expert contributors explore the ways in which the movement is continuing to work its way through institutions and persists within submerged networks cultural production and in everyday living sustaining itself in non receptive political environments and maintaining a discursive feminist space for generations to come Set in a transnational perspective this book trace the legacies of the Australian women s movement to the present day in protest non government organisations government organisations popular culture the Internet and the Slut Walk The Women s Movement in Protest Institutions and the Internet will be of interest to international students and scholars of gender politics gender studies social movement studies and comparative politics

Turbo Chicks Lara Karaian, Lisa Bryn Rundle, Allyson Mitchell, 2001 Energetic reflective often passionate Turbo Chicks clearly and powerfully demonstrates that feminism has many valid interpretations and that young and older feminist alike are vital to keeping the movement dynamic

The Good Mother Susan Goodwin, Kate Huppatz, 2010 The Good Mother brings together essays on the contemporary relevance of the good mother in Australia Although the ideals of the good mother change with time fashion and context they persist in public policy the media popular culture and workplaces They place pressure on women to conform to particular standards against which they are judged and judge themselves This book captures the diversity of contemporary women s experiences Chapters address the experiences of executive mothers mothers working in manual trades yummy mummies and slummy mummies low income mothers single mothers Indigenous mothers lesbian parents adoptive mothers and mothers negotiating schools and school choice The essays demonstrate that while the good mother is no longer exclusively white heterosexual economically dependent and child focused prevailing ideas about mothers and motherhood continue to influence the way types of women are represented and the way that all mothers think act and present themselves

Feminisms: Within and Without Rebecca Pelan, 2006

DIY Citizenship Matt Ratto, Megan Boler, 2014-02-07 How social media and DIY communities have enabled new forms of political participation that emphasize doing and making rather than passive consumption Today DIY do it yourself describes more than self taught carpentry Social media enables DIY citizens to organize and protest in new ways as in Egypt s Twitter revolution of 2011 and to repurpose corporate content or create new user generated content in order to offer political counternarratives This book examines the usefulness and limits of DIY citizenship exploring the diverse forms of political participation and critical making that have emerged in recent years The authors and artists in this collection describe DIY citizens whose activities range from activist fan blogging and video production to knitting and the creation of community gardens Contributors examine DIY activism describing new modes of civic engagement that include Harry Potter fan activism and the activities of the Yes Men They consider DIY making in learning culture hacking and the arts including do it yourself media production and collaborative documentary making They discuss DIY and design and how citizens can unlock the black box of technological infrastructures to engage and innovate open and participatory critical making And they explore DIY and media describing activists efforts to remake and reimagine media and the public sphere As these chapters make clear DIY is characterized by its emphasis on doing and making rather than passive consumption DIY citizens assume active roles as interventionists makers hackers modders and tinkerers in pursuit of new forms of engaged and participatory democracy Contributors Mike Ananny Chris Atton Alexandra Bal Megan Boler Catherine Burwell Red Chidgey Andrew Clement Negin Dahya Suzanne de Castell Carl DiSalvo Kevin Driscoll Christina Dunbar Hester Joseph Ferenbok Stephanie Fisher Miki Foster Stephen Gilbert Henry Jenkins Jennifer Jenson Yasmin B Kafai Ann Light Steve Mann Joel McKim Brenda McPhail Owen McSwiney Joshua McVeigh Schultz Graham Meikle Emily Rose Michaud Kate Milberry Michael Murphy Jason Nolan Kate Orton Johnson Kylie A Peppler David J Phillips Karen Pollock Matt Ratto Ian Reilly Rosa Reitsamer Mandy Rose Daniela K Rosner Yukari Seko Karen Louise Smith Lana Swartz Alex Tichine Jennette Weber Elke Zobl Right-Wing Women Paola Bacchetta, Margaret Power, 2013-01-11 An oft neglected subject right wing women are an important component in understanding the many racist fascist and anti feminist movements of the 20th century Providing original research on an array of right wing groups around the world the contributors paint a disturbing and complicated portrait of the women involved in these movements From Mussolini supporters to Klanswomen this collection provides an eye opening look at extremist women A Writing Life Bernadette Brennan, 2017-04-03 This is literary critique and biography at its finest Australian Financial Review Helen Garner is one of Australia s most important and most admired writers She is revered for her fearless honesty in the pursuit of her craft But Garner also courts controversy not least because she refuses to be constrained by the rules of literary form She has never been afraid to write herself into her nonfiction and many of her own experiences help to shape her fiction But who is the I in Helen Garner s work Bernadette Brennan s A Writing Life is the first full length study of Garner s forty years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Brennan has had access to previously unavailable papers in Garner s archive and she provides a lively and rigorous reading of the books journals and correspondence of one of Australia s most beloved women of letters Dr Bernadette Brennan is an academic and researcher in contemporary Australian writing literature and ethics She is the author of a number of publications including a monograph on Brian Castro and two edited collections Just Words Australian Authors Writing for Justice UQP 2008 and Ethical Investigations Essays on Australian Literature and Poetics Vagabond 2008 She lives in Sydney Garner has always been a boundary crosser Refusing the constrictions of literary genre she has sought to write across and craft her own versions of them She readily admits to a me character in all her work That character is a carefully constructed self In her fiction she unsettles her readers assumptions about protagonists by creating Helen characters most blatantly in Little Helen s Sunday Afternoon Habe Dank and The Spare Room In so doing she demonstrates the complexity of a

constructed fictional self Billed as the first full length study of Garner s 40 years of work a literary portrait that maps all of her books against the different stages of her life Well who wouldn t want to read that Australian Bernadette Brennan s ingenious A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which gets around the subject s resistance to biography by viewing her life through her writing as Garner herself does Susan Wyndham Best Books of 2017 Australian Book Review Brennan s depiction of Garner s fearless approach to the very difficult subjects of The First Stone Joe Cinque s Consolation and This House of Grief is beautifully modulated and a real triumph She has captured and interpreted an important writer and her work beautifully Books Publishing Brennan has produced a literary portrait that more than does its subject justice It is not a biography Garner was quite clear that she didn t want that but because Garner is so often present in her own writing it s inevitable that her life is reflected in the discussion of her works This helps put her works in context and a picture emerges of an amazing writer Bernadette Brennan has done us all a great favour in delivering this immensely enjoyable book Mark Rubbo Readings Brennan is an astute and sensitive reader of Garner s work Big Issue The writing is clear measured and graceful throughout The readings of the fiction are astute and straightforward tracing Garner s development from the allegedly unstructured Monkey Grip which in fact offers a formal equivalent to the push me pull you vagaries of love and junk through the perfection of The Children s Bach and the experiments in voice and style in Postcards from Surfers to the late style bareness and hardness of The Spare Room Sydney Morning Herald This book offers an illuminating discussion of Garner s boundary crossing work Its own magic lies in bringing elements of memoir and criticism into an absorbing conversation that begins with a rich contextualisation of Garner s work and extends into the literary and ethical questions with which Brennan has long been concerned Australian Absorbing informative and engaging read Conversation Brennan examines both assumptions by tracing Garner s steps to becoming a full time writer in a style that is both thoughtful and readable Australian Book Review Bernadette Brennan brings a calm eye and an easy grace to her descriptions of Garner s life literature and impact on Australia s cultural and socio political landscape She draws a more complex picture of one of our best known and most skilled writers than we ve enjoyed in a full length volume before A Bigger Brighter World Probably my favourite book so far this year A marvellous tribute to one of Australia s great writers Mark Rubbo The Best Books We ve Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings Bernadette Brennan s first full length study of Helen Garner s work A Writing Life has inspired me to pile Garner s books on my bedside table and to look at each of them again with fresh eyes The Best Books We ve Read This Year So Far 2017 Readings A remarkably shrewd study of Garner s work knitted with a tender representation of her personal life Mascara Literary Review Brennan performs a kind of call for literature its criticism as well as creation Sydney Review of Books You might also include academic Bernadette Brennan s superb literary portrait of Garner A Writing Life Helen Garner and Her Work which combines a close analysis of Garner s work with illuminating insights into her life Garner gave Brennan unprecedented access to her archives and spent long hours in conversation with her It shows Sydney

Morning Herald Can't Put Down Titles for Summer A book for those who want to understand Garner's work more But it is also a book which makes clear the significant contribution Garner has made to Australian literature And in doing that it is itself a significant book Whispering Gums The C Word Jean Taylor, 2000 An account of the different ways the diagnosis of ovarian cancer affected two lesbians who were partners and active members of the lesbian community in Melbourne in the 1990s The book covers the events of the last two and a half years of Maureen O'Connor's life from initial surgery radiotherapy chemotherapy and other treatment Different Voices Elizabeth Van Acker, 1999 Different Wavelengths Jo Reger, 2014-01-27 The original essays in this collection ground the shifting terrain of feminism in the 21st century The contributors define and examine the complexity of the Third Wave by answering questions like how appropriate is a third wave label for contemporary feminism are the agendas of contemporary feminism and the second wave really all that different does the wave metaphor accurately describe the difference between contemporary feminists and their predecessors how do women of color fit into this notion of contemporary feminism and what are the future directions of the feminist movement The Palgrave Handbook of Queer and Trans Feminisms in Contemporary Performance Tiina Rosenberg, Sandra D'Urso, Anna Renée Winget, 2021-09-21 The purpose of this Handbook is to provide students with an overview of key developments in queer and trans feminist theories and their significance to the field of contemporary performance studies It presents new insights highlighting the ways in which rigid or punishing notions of gender sexuality and race continue to flourish in systems of knowledge faith and power which are relevant to a new generation of queer and trans feminist performers today The guiding question for the Handbook is How do queer and trans feminist theories enhance our understanding of developments in feminist performance today and will this discussion give rise to new ways of theorizing contemporary performance As such the volume will survey a new generation of performers and theorists as well as senior scholars who engage and redefine the limits of performance The chapters will demonstrate how intersectional queer and trans feminist theoretical tools support new analyses of performance with a global focus The primary audience will be students of theatre performance studies as well as queer gender studies The volume's contents suggest close links between the formation of queer feminist identities alongside recent key political developments with transnational resonances Furthermore the emergence of new queer and trans feminist epistemologies prompts a reorientation regarding performance and identities in a 21st century context Youth Cultures and Subcultures Sarah Baker, Brady Robards, 2016-02-11 This volume critically examines subculture in a variety of Australian contexts exploring the ways in which the terrain of youth cultures and subcultures has changed over the past two decades and considering whether subculture still works as a viable conceptual framework for studying youth culture Richly illustrated with concrete case studies the book is thematically organised into four sections addressing i theoretical concerns and global debates over the continued usefulness of subculture as a concept ii the important place of belonging in subcultural experience and the ways in which belonging is played out across an array of youth cultures iii the gendered experiences of young men and women and their ways of navigating subcultural participation and iv the ethical and methodological considerations that arise in relation to researching and teaching youth culture and subculture Bringing together the latest interdisciplinary research to combine theoretical considerations with recent empirical studies of subcultural experience Youth Cultures and Subcultures will appeal to scholars and students across the social sciences
