Music in Lubavitcher Life Ellen Koskoff, 2000-11-06 Music in Lubavitcher Life illuminates the world of the Lubavitcher Hasidim a community of ultra orthodox Jews centered in the Crown Heights section of Brooklyn New York Drawing primarily on twenty years of close study of the Lubavitcher community Ellen Koskoff combines lively anecdotes with historical background and musical analysis to reveal music making among the Lubavitchers as a gateway to their ideas about the nature of human spirituality human social interaction and God

Lubavitcher music centers on the nigunim a body of paraliturgical folk and popular melodies that Lubavitchers regard as a primary form of spiritual communication with the divine For a song to be included in the repertory of nigunim it must conform to Hasidic religious and aesthetic principles If brought in from the outside it must be purified stripped of its coarse outer shell usually the text and recomposed in accordance with coded musical structures including certain melody types ornamentation and formal organization

Performance of nigunim adheres among other things to a process associated with the spirituality of the great Hasidic leaders of the past

Along with vivid descriptions of musical performance in religious contexts and private gatherings Koskoff details the musical sounds and structures that symbolize Lubavitcher social relations In particular she examines the differences between Lubavitcher women s and men s music making and the underlying beliefs and assumptions that give rise to gendered musical behaviors such as the dictum that prohibits men from hearing a woman sing

An insightful portrait of a distinctive community s musical and religious life Music in Lubavitcher Life is also a candid view of ethnographic research and of fieldwork s illusory objectivity

Making a Scene Liz Millward, 2015-11-15 Starting in the mid 1960s Canadian lesbians started leaving their closets en masse to find each other and build community After decades of being pathologized or erased from public view lesbians were ready to make a scene both by bringing attention to themselves and by creating physical spaces and opportunities where they could meet to form relationships debate politics and forge their own culture Making a Scene documents the lesbian movement that emerged in Canada between 1964 and 1984 Not just a story of big city life it chronicles the range of spaces lesbians created across rural and urban Canada from physical locations such as lesbian and gay centres bookstores and private members clubs to ephemeral sites of encounter such as conferences festivals and Dykes in the Streets marches Enriched by interviews and excerpts from letters club meeting minutes diaries and more Making a Scene brings to life the exuberance and determination of these young women
