

HOW THE ETHIOPIAN WOMAN TAMED HER HUSBAND

An Ethiopian Tale Retold By Murad Kamel

Origin of the Tale

The name Ethiopia derives from the Greek ethio, meaning "burned" and pis, meaning "face" - the land of burned-face people.

Officially known as the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia, Ethiopia is a country located in the Horn of Africa. It is bordered by Eritrea to the north, Djibouti and Somalia to the East, Sudan and South Sudan to the west, and Kenya to the south. With over 91,000,000 inhabitants, Ethiopia is the most populous landlocked country in the world and the second-most populated nation on the African continent.

Summary of the Text

Once there was a woman who was in great grief and pity of herself. Her husband neglected her and did not seem to bother if she was happy or sad. Greatly troubled by this matter, the woman decided to seek the help of a local witchdoctor to remedy and help her with her dilemma. The woman asked the witchdoctor of a charm that she can use for her husband to love her again. The witchdoctor agreed to help the woman in her plight, but in one condition: the woman must bring her first three strands of hair from the mane of a living lion.

The woman felt very grateful and went away to think of a plan on how to fulfill the witchdoctor's request. She sat down on a rock and contemplated on how to retrieve the three strands from the fierce lion who often come near the village. And so, early next morning, she took a young lamb and went to the place where the lion was accustomed to stroll about. She waited anxiously and when she saw the lion approaching, she quickly arose and left the lamb in the path of the lion, and went home. And so it was that every day in the morning the woman would rise and take a young lamb to the lion. Soon the lion came to know the woman, for she was always in the same place at the same time every day with a young and tender lamb to offer. It was not long before the lion began to know and like her and he would let her stroke his head. Each day, the woman

With a remarkable command of prose, Wharton's stylistic choices range from sharp social commentary to lush descriptive passages reflecting the complexity of her characters and settings. The collection includes celebrated works such as The Age of Innocence and The House of Mirth, which exemplify her ability to critique the societal norms of her time while engaging readers with intricate narratives that delve into the psychology of her characters. Edith Wharton (1862-1937), the first woman to win the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction, was deeply influenced by her affluent upbringing in a socially prominent New York family. Her firsthand experiences with high society provided her with an intimate understanding of its intricacies and contradictions, themes that permeate her works. Wharton's extensive travels and her engagement with European literary movements further enriched her narrative techniques, establishing her as a pioneering force in American literature. This anthology is highly recommended for anyone seeking to grasp the nuances of Wharton's literary landscape and the critical insights she offers into the human experience. Whether you are a seasoned reader of literary classics or new to Wharton's oeuvre, her collected works offer a fascinating lens through which to understand the complexities of societal expectations and personal desires.
