it grapples with questions of power and representation while remaining deeply committed to radical critiques and agendas of transnational and postcolonial feminisms Long time activists and well known scholars speak to a wide range of issues and practices including women s studies curricula NGOs transnational and LGBTQ studies feminist methodologies and film These essays similarly conceptualize ways to more effectively theorize feminist collaborative practices while subverting such rigid established dichotomies as theory practice academic activist individual collaborative and the global North South A number of transnational projects are highlighted the Guyanese Red Thread collective the Ananya Dance Theater the Philippine Women Center of British Columbia the Filipino Canadian Youth Alliance the VIVA Project and the Indian organization Sangtin Comprehensive in scope and rigorous in critical scrutiny these powerful essays set the twenty first century agenda for political engagement through feminist scholarship The mix of styles makes for a lively read that is accessible for its extraordinary candor its combination of theory with firmly grounded empirical examples and an unflinching confrontation of pain and conflict It made me think about entirely new things and about familiar things in new ways and to make connections among them Louise Fortmann University of California Berkeley Amanda Lock Swarr is Assistant Professor of Women Studies at the University of Washington Seattle Richa Nagar is Professor of Gender Women and Sexuality Studies at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities She is the author with Sangtin writers of Playing with Fire Feminist Thought and Activism through Seven Lives in India

Achieving Sustainable Communities in a Global Economy Ralph D. Christy, 2004 This important book explores alternative strategies in agricultural and rural development to address the impacts of globalization processes on smallholder agriculturalists and marginalized rural people Its goal is twofold 1 to identify and assess the key processes by which globalization is affecting the smallholder agricultural and rural sectors and 2 to identify and propose both micro and macro level policies and other strategies to deal with the problems that arise

Consuming Mexican Labor Ronald Mize, Alicia Swords, 2010-10-15 Mexican migration to the United States and Canada is a highly contentious issue in the eyes of many North Americans and every generation seems to construct the northward flow of labor as a brand new social problem The history of Mexican labor migration to the United States from the Bracero Program 1942 1964 to the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA suggests that Mexicans have been actively encouraged to migrate northward when labor markets are in short supply only to be turned back during economic downturns In this timely book Mize and Swords dissect the social relations that define how corporations consumers and states involve Mexican immigrant laborers in the politics of production and consumption The result is a comprehensive and contemporary look at the increasingly important role that Mexican immigrants play in the North American economy

Broccoli and Desire Edward F. Fischer, 2006 This book takes a surprising look at the hidden world of broccoli connecting American consumers concerned about their health and diet with Maya farmers concerned about holding onto their land and making a living Compelling life stories and rich descriptions from ethnographic fieldwork among supermarket shoppers in Nashville Tennessee and Maya farmers in highland Guatemala bring the commodity chain of this seemingly mundane product to life For affluent Americans broccoli fits into everyday concerns about eating right being healthy staying in shape and valuing natural foods For Maya farmers this new export crop provides an opportunity to make a little extra money in difficult often risky circumstances Unbeknownst to each other the American consumer and the Maya farmer are bound together in webs of desire and material production

Remaking Politics, Markets, and Citizens in Turkey Ebru Kayaalp, 2014-12-18 Remaking Politics Markets and Citizens in Turkey critically analyses the travel of neoliberal ideas policies experts and institutions from the West to Turkey Through an ethnographic investigation of the newly established tobacco market Ebru Kayaalp considers how they are being adopted and transformed in their new settings The February 2001 crisis the most severe economic downturn in the history of Turkey generated an emergency situation in which a series of sweeping neoliberal policies were implemented to prop up the collapsed economy To receive the necessary loans from the international financial institutions the Turkish government hastily enacted a number of neoliberal laws including the notorious tobacco law Remaking Politics Markets and Citizens in Turkey not only explores the repercussions of the new tobacco law such as the establishment of a new regulatory institution the emergence of contract farming and the privatization of the tobacco monopoly thereby making a liberalized market but also the smoking ban governing the bodies and spaces of Muslim citizens Remaking Politics Markets and Citizens in Turkey provides an innovative contribution to Middle Eastern studies filling the gap for anthropological research in Muslim countries on local economic relations and their connections with the global economy Wages of Empire Amalia L. Cabezas, Ellen Reese, Marguerite Waller, 2015-12-03 Corporate globalization has intensified in recent years taking a terrible toll on the lives of ordinary women in the global North and South This book investigates the related processes of neoliberal economic restructuring and increased militarization tracking policy and its enforcement to its impact on low income women This interdisciplinary volume provides rich analyses of the oppressive working and living conditions of urban and rural women rightward shifts in public policies and women's resistance to these developments Cross-Continental Agro-Food Chains

Niels Fold, Bill Pritchard, 2005-04-25 Filling a gap in contemporary food and globalization scholarship this timely book presents recent case study research on the globalization of food systems and the impacts for communities around the world It covers debates on new structures and food products as well as detailed accounts of fresh horticulture tropical crops and livestock Drawing together contributions of twenty six leading international social scientists from eleven countries this book will interest researchers in geography development studies agricultural economics and political science as well as professionals in the fields of trade and food policy Social Change and Intersectional Activism Sharon Doetsch-Kidder, 2012-06-04 Reading texts in relation to feminist queer and race theory and Buddhist philosophy this book argues that an understanding of spirit is critical to explaining the power that social movements have to change hearts minds and social structures Labour Internationalism in the Global South Robert O'Brien, 2019-01-03 Labour internationalism is often viewed as impossible or inevitable depending upon political perspective O'Brien argues for a more nuanced diverse understanding of labour internationalism identifying six different faces shaped by the national or global orientation of particular groups in the fields of production regulation and ideas Providing a general view of labour's global activity and a case study of the Southern Initiative on Globalisation and Trade Union Rights SIGTUR the book illustrates how the productive and regulatory structures of the global economy are pushing labour internationalism in particular directions It details how leftist unions in Argentina Australia Brazil India the Philippines South Africa and South Korea have tried to bridge their differences and launch collective actions Drawing upon twenty years of participant observation O'Brien reveals a specific Global South approach based upon anti imperialism anti capitalism and empathetic internationalism Routledge

International Handbook of Food Studies Ken Albala, 2013-05-07 Over the past decade there has been a remarkable flowering of interest in food and nutrition both within the popular media and in academia Scholars are increasingly using foodways food systems and eating habits as a new unit of analysis within their own disciplines and students are rushing into classes and formal degree programs focused on food Introduced by the editor and including original articles by over thirty leading food scholars from around the world the Routledge International Handbook of Food Studies offers students scholars and all those interested in food related research a one stop easy to use reference guide Each article includes a brief history of food research within a discipline or on a particular topic a discussion of research methodologies and ideological or theoretical positions resources for research including archives grants and fellowship opportunities as well as suggestions for further study Each entry also explains the logistics of succeeding as a student and professional in food studies This clear direct Handbook will appeal to those hoping to start a career in academic food studies as well as those hoping to shift their research to a food related project Strongly interdisciplinary this work will be of interest to students and scholars throughout the social sciences and humanities

Feminisms Matter Victoria L. Bromley, 2012-01-01 Feminisms Matter confronts the major reasons people offer for not being feminists by breaking apart stereotypes of feminists unraveling myths about women's history and challenging assumptions about feminists and feminisms Border Odyssey Charles D. Thompson, Jr., 2017-09-05 This compelling chronicle of a journey along the entire U S Mexico border shifts the conversation away from danger and fear to the shared histories and aspirations that bind Mexicans and Americans despite the border walls

Flip-Flop Caroline Knowles, 2014-05-20 Shortlisted for the BBC Radio 4 Thinking Allowed Award for Ethnography 2015 This book follows the global trail of one of the world's most unremarkable and ubiquitous objects flip flops Through this unique lens Caroline Knowles takes a ground level view of the lives and places of globalisation's back roads providing new insights that challenge contemporary accounts of globalisation Rather than orderly product chains the book shows that globalisation along the flip flop trail is a tangle of unstable shifting ad hoc and contingent connections This book displays both the instabilities of the chains and the complexities personal topographies and skills with which people navigate these global uncertainties Flip Flop provides new ways of thinking about globalisation from the vantage point of the shifting landscape crossed by a seemingly ordinary and everyday commodity
