'This Culture of Ours' Peter K. Bol, 1994-08-01 This book traces the shared culture of the Chinese elite from the seventh to the twelfth centuries The early Tang definition of This Culture of Ours combined literary and scholarly traditions from the previous five centuries The late Sung Neo Confucian movement challenged that definition The author argues that the Tang-Sung transition is best understood as a transition from a literary view of culture in which literary accomplishment and mastery of traditional forms were regarded as essential to the ethical orientation of Neo Confucianism in which the cultivation of one's innate moral ability was regarded as the goal of learning The author shows that this transformation paralleled the collapse of the Tang order and the restoration of a centralized empire under the Sung underscoring the connection between elite formation and political institutions Reinvigorating the Lost Philosophical Self Qinghai Gao, 2025-03-29 This book not only presents Gao's major philosophical views and background but also reflects our self-consciousness and zeitgeist Reinvigorating the Lost Philosophical Self is the last major published work by Qinghai Gao The three parts of the book are organized around the themes of traditional reality and philosophy philosophy and innovation and man and philosophy respectively The book does not only provide a philosophical standpoint but also broaden the horizon on which the Chinese turn to themselves to the times and to the world Presently under the context of the Covid pandemic trade war regional conflicts and economic slowdown there is an increasing risk of disruption to people's lives The book sheds some light on where we are going Coming from a Chinese philosopher Reinvigorating the Lost Philosophical Self is concerned with our destiny reflects our hardships and attempts to provide answers to our questions Translation Of Poetry And Poetic Prose, Proceedings Of The Nobel Symposium 110 Sture Allen, 1999-08-30 Translation is a very important tool in our multilingual world Excellent translation is a sine qua non in the work of the Swedish Academy responsible for the Nobel Prize in Literature In order to establish a forum for discussing fundamental aspects of the translation of poetry and poetic prose a Nobel Symposium on this subject was organized The list of contributors includes Sture Allen Jean Boase Beier Philippe
