Nineteenth-Century Interiors

Clive Edwards,2023-12-05 This volume of primary source materials documents the nature of the home and the theories and discussions around the concept It examines the class divisions that become evident with the ostentatious lifestyles of political and society hostesses at the peak whilst middle class housing often in suburbia seemed to have created a separation of home and work arguably suggesting men and women lived in separate spheres Working class interiors often seen the eyes of middle class observers were at the bottom of the hierarchy and often reflected concerns of social inequality and misery The documents also address the process of purchasing and decorating a home advice on decoration and home management the nature of taste and comfort and the symbolic roles of the home as an anchor in society Accompanied by extensive editorial commentary this collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of art history

Florence, Berlin and Beyond: Late Nineteenth-Century Art Markets and their Social Networks ,2020-06-22 Recent and increasing interest in art market studies the dealers mediators advisors taste makers artists etc indicate that the transaction of art and decorative art is anything but linear Taking as its point of departure two of the most active agents of the late nineteenth century Wilhelm von Bode and Stefano Bardini the essays in this volume also look beyond to other art market individuals and their vast and frequently interconnected social and professional networks Newly told history taken from rich business epistolary and photographic archives these essays examine the art market within a broader and more complex context In doing so they offer new areas of inquiry for mapping of works of art as they were exchanged over time and place
