Tapestry Of Christian Theology:

Heavenly Participation Hans Boersma, 2011-02-01 Surveying the barriers that contemporary thinking has erected between the natural and the supernatural between earth and heaven Hans Boersma issues a wake up call for Western Christianity Both Catholics and evangelicals he says have moved too far away from a sacramental mindset focusing more on the here and now than on the then and there Yet as Boersma points out the teaching of Jesus Paul and St Augustine indeed of most of Scripture and the church fathers is profoundly otherworldly much more concerned with heavenly participation than with earthly enjoyment In Heavenly Participation Boersma draws on the wisdom of great Christian minds ancient and modern Irenaeus Gregory of Nyssa C S Lewis Henri de Lubac John Milbank and many others He urges Catholics and evangelicals alike to retrieve a sacramental worldview to cultivate a greater awareness of eternal mysteries to partake eagerly of the divine life that transcends and transforms all earthly realities

Weaving the American Catholic Tapestry Derek C. Hatch, Timothy R. Gabrielli, 2017-03-28 Concerned that American Catholic theology has struggled to find its own voice for much of its history William Portier has spent virtually his entire scholarly career recovering a usable past for Catholics on the U S landscape This work of ressourcement has stood at the intersection of several disciplines and has unlocked the beauty of American Catholic life and thought These essays which are offered in honor of Portier's life and work emerge from his vision for American Catholicism where Scripture tradition reason and experience are distinct but interwoven and inextricably linked with one another As this volume details such a path is not merely about scholarly endeavors but involves the pursuit of holiness in the real world

A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Y. Atsen, 2022-12-16 Who is Jesus Christ in a context of violence and bloodshed such as that experienced by Christians in Northern Nigeria This is the question at the heart of Dr Isuwa Atsen's study of global Christology His aim however is not to develop a Christology that is unique to Northern Nigeria but a Christology that is contextually and conceptually relevant to the real concerns of Nigerian Christians while maintaining a catholic and scriptural understanding of the person of Jesus Christ In order to do so he weaves together three diverse christological approaches examining the intersection of contextual theology analytic theology and the theological interpretation of Scripture The approach thereby presents some helpful insights for theological methodology in general This is an excellent resource for theologians students and all those involved in the task of global Christology African Christian Theology, Volume 1, Number 2, September 2024 Joshua Robert Barron, 2024-12-20 African Christian Theology is the academic journal of the Association for Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA The mission of ACTEA is to strengthen theological education through accreditation scholarship and support services to serve the church and transform society The journal is one way in which ACTEA engages theological educators and church leaders in addressing relevant issues facing the church and society in Africa African Christian Theology serves the whole of Africa and provides a venue for conversations between different regions of Africa as well as an organ through which African voices can address World Christianity at large Following in the footsteps of Kwame Bediako Byang Kato K Mana Lamin Sanneh Andrew F Walls and Isaac Zokou the journal promotes World Christianity perspectives through deep engagement with African contextual realities Articles are published in English French and Portuguese each article has a trilingual abstract in those languages ACTEA was founded in 1976 by the Theological and Christian Education Commission of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa AEA Under its continued sponsorship ACTEA operates with internal autonomy in the accreditation of programmes of theological education throughout Africa in order to stimulate the improvement and standardization of such programmes and in order to secure academic recognition for such programmes wherever possible especially among the constituencies of these institutions in Africa and among similar institutions and their constituencies overseas Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease A Tapestry of Faiths Winfried Corduan,2002 Christians find themselves in an increasingly diverse world The new place of worship in our neighborhood might just as likely be a Hindu temple or a Muslim mosque as a church or a synagogue

Irrevocable R. Kendall Soulen,2022 Irrevocable focuses attention upon a crucial but often misunderstood feature of the Bible God s personal proper name Author R Kendall Soulen explores the implications of God s proper name for Christian faith and for Christianity s relationship to Judaism and Islam A Tapestry of Global Christology Isuwa Yohanna Atsen,2019 This dissertation pursues the interaction of the theological interpretation of Scripture analytic theology and contextual theology grounded in the principles of canonicity catholicity contextuality and conceptuality It brings all these approaches to bear on the practice of global Christologizing Using weaving as a metaphor for doing theology the study seeks to orient Christology in a global analytic theological theology key It argues that global theology needs to proceed from the canonical text and the Christian tradition while being attentive to contextual realities and concepts with analytic rigor The study shows that analytic theology holds promise for doing global theology but more so if it interfaces with the theological interpretation of Scripture in a way that all three disciplines or approaches are strengthened A contextual theology that is inclined to both theological interpretation and analytic theology will help these practices avoid mere discussions of scriptural and logical theological ideas that may have no bearing to real issues faced by the local church On the other hand contextual theology would also benefit by being safe guarded from a theology whereby context alone determines truth claims and overrides any other concerns While the focus on using contextual realities and cultural resources is not only desirable but also inevitable many of the Christologies that emerge from this approach often exclude and or limit some of the principles stated above In the absence of these principles Scripture is merely read with cultural lenses and in some instances the local concepts employed in Christologizing fail to sustain the same judgments found in both biblical texts and early ecclesial tradition Finally the study puts to work the judgments that ensued from the interaction described above by reflecting on the person and work of Christ from the experience of Christians and churches in northern Nigeria using Matthew 14 22 33 and Philippians 2 5 11 What is demonstrated at the end is not necessarily a new Christology that is unique to this context but a Christology that seeks above all to be canonical and catholic while being contextually and conceptually relevant to the real problems faced by Christians in the region What emerges then is illustrative of an approach to global Christologizing that seeks to be truly global An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga,Thomas R. Thompson,Matthew D.

Christian Theology in a Pluralistic Context Steven L. Wiebe,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph The Battle For Reappearance Caleb Sterns,2023-06-02 The Battle for Reappearance is intriguing historical fiction that pushes the boundaries of conventional storytelling Investigate the hidden history of Jesus Christ intriguing mysteries and where provocative themes collide Follow the protagonist on a thrilling excursion through time as he uncovers the secrets of the past and navigates the complex web of historical events With it s spellbreaker narrative and rich attention to detail this book will leave you questioning what you thought you knew about history and yearning for more Begin an unforgettable literary journey and discover a whole new perspective on the past with The Battle for Reappearance Transforming Christian Theology Philip Clayton,2009-11-02 This compact volume offers a way for Christians to reflect deeply on how best to conceive Christian identity commitment and discipleship in today s challenged globalized pluralistic scene This volume seeks to capture and articulate the ferment in grassroots North American Christianity today and to relate it directly to the recent strong resurgence of progressive thought and politics It argues strongly for a mediating role specifically for Christian theology conceived first as a life practice of Christian discipleship One of a Kind Adam Sparks,2010-01-01 A fundamental requirement in an inclusivist understanding of the relationship between Christianity and other religions is evidence of God s salvific activity outside any knowledge of Christ This is commonly identified in the religion of Old Testament Israel On this basis an analogy the Israel analogy is drawn between the religion of the old covenant and contemporary non Christian religions Closely related is the parallel argument that as Christ has fulfilled the Old covenant he can also be seen as the fulfillment of other religious traditions and their scriptures This study outlines the use of the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model subjecting these concepts to a biblical and theological critique revealing that the exegetical and patristic data are misconstrued in support of these concepts Furthermore the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model undermine the sui generis relationship between the old and new covenants and fail to respect the organic progressive nature of salvation history They also misconstrue the old covenant and the nature of its fulfillment in the new covenant The Israel analogy and fulfillment model rely on a correspondence between the chronologically premessianic Israel and the epistemologically premessianic other religions and therefore consider the BC condition to continue today In so doing they undermine the significance of the Christ event by failing to appreciate the decisive effect of this event on history and the nature of existence It marks a radical turn in salvation history a crisis point rendering the BC period complete and fulfilled Therefore the concept of a continuing premessianic condition or state is seriously flawed as are the Israel analogy and fulfillment model Thus the inclusivist paradigm reliant in large part on these defective concepts is also problematic and proponents of this paradigm need to reconsider its basis
