Tapeworm Foundry Andor The Dangerous Prevalence Of Imagination:

The Tapeworm Foundry, Andor [sic], the Dangerous Prevalence of Imagination Darren Sean Wershler-Henry, 2000 A brilliant list of book proposals Darren Wershler Henry's the tapeworm foundry challenges current poetic rules of form and subject matter and turns a seemingly utilitarian handbook for writers into a powerful artistic expression of defiance Both a recipe book for poets and a critical examination of the recipes we've inherited this is an eloquent and absurdist long poem on the parasitic nature of all expression and the anxiety of influence Anarchists in the Academy Dani Spinosa, 2022-08-29 Dani Spinosa takes up anarchism's power as a cultural and artistic ideology rather than as a political philosophy with a persistent emphasis on the common She demonstrates how postanarchism offers a useful theoretical context for poetry that is not explicitly political specifically for the contemporary experimental poem with its characteristic challenges to subjectivity representation authorial power and conventional constructions of the reader text relationship Her case studies of sixteen texts make a bold move toward politicizing readers and imbuing literary theory with an activist praxis a sharp hope This is a provocative volume for those interested in contemporary poetics experimental literatures and the digital humanities Case Studies Jim Andrews Christian B k Mez Breeze John Cage Andy Campbell Robert Duncan Kenneth Goldsmith Susan Howe Jackson Mac Low Er n Moure Erin Mour Harryette Mullen bpNichol Vanessa Place Juliana Spahr Brian Kim Stefans W Mark Sutherland and Darren Wershler Proceedings of the British Academy, Volume 117, 2002 Volume 117 of the Proceedings of the British Academy contains 13 lectures delivered at the British Academy in 2001 The Johns Hopkins Guide to Digital Media Marie-Laure Ryan, Lori Emerson, Benjamin J. Robertson, 2014-04-15 The first systematic comprehensive reference covering the ideas genres and concepts behind digital media The study of what is collectively labeled New Media the cultural and artistic practices made possible by digital technology has become one of the most vibrant areas of scholarly activity and is rapidly turning into an established academic field with many universities now offering it as a major The Johns Hopkins Guide to Digital Media is the first comprehensive reference work to which teachers students and the curious can quickly turn for reliable information on the key terms and concepts of the field The contributors present entries on nearly 150 ideas genres and theoretical concepts that have allowed digital media to produce some of the most innovative intellectual artistic and social practices of our time The result is an easy to consult reference for digital media scholars or anyone wishing to become familiar with this fast developing field Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert, 2022-04-05 An examination of a series of diverse radical and experimental international works from the 1950s to the present What is a literary work In Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert tackles this question by deploying an extended concept of literature examining a series of diverse radical experimental works from the 1950s to the present that occupy the liminal zone between art and literature These works by American Artist Allison Parrish Natalie Czech Stephanie Syjuco Fiona Banner Elfriede Jelinek Dan Graham Robert Barry George Brecht and others represent a pluralized literary practice that imagines a different literature emerging from its elsewhere Investigating a work's coming into being its transition from text to work as a social object and pragmatic category of literary communication Gilbert probes the assumptions and foundations that underpin literature including the ideologies and power structures that prop it up She offers a snapshot from a period of recent literary and art history when such central concepts as originality and authorship were questioned and experimental literary practices ranged from concrete poetry and Oulipo to conceptual writing and appropriation literature She examines works that are dematerialized site specific unique copies of other works and institutional critiques Considering the inequalities exclusions and privileges inscribed in literature she documents the power of experimental literature to attack these norms and challenges the field's canonical geographic boundaries by examining artists with roots in North and South America East Asia and Western and Eastern Europe The cross pollination of literary and art criticism enriches both fields With Literature's Elsewheres Gilbert explores what art can't see about the literary and what literature has overlooked in the arts

Modernism and Poetic Inspiration J. Rasula, 2009-06-08 The sites of inspiration documented in this book range from nineteenth century linguistic theory to postmodern strategies of conceptual writing encompassing well known instances of modernist poetics Mallarmé Pound Olson alongside obscure but revealing figures like Otto Nebel and Henri Martin Barzun

Lists and Catalogues in Ancient Literature and Beyond Rebecca Laemmle, Cédric Scheidegger Laemmle, Katharina Wesselmann, 2021-02-22 Lists and catalogues have been en vogue in philosophy cultural media and literary studies for more than a decade These explorations of enumerative modes however have not yet had the impact on classical scholarship that they deserve While they routinely take a limited set of ancient models as their starting point there is no comparably comprehensive study that focuses on antiquity conversely studies on lists and catalogues in Classics remain largely limited to individual texts and with some notable exceptions offer little in terms of explicit theorising The present volume is an attempt to close this gap and foster the dialogue between the recent theoretical re appraisal of enumerative modes and scholarship on ancient cultures The 16 contributions to the volume juxtapose literary forms of enumeration with an abundance of ancient non sub or para literary practices of listing and cataloguing In their different approaches to this vast and heterogeneous corpus they offer a sense of the hermeneutic epistemic and methodological challenges with which the study of enumeration is faced and elucidate how pragmatics materiality performativity and aesthetics are mediated in lists and catalogues

Literature Now Sascha Bru, 2016-01-19 Literature Now argues that modern literary history is currently the main site of theoretical and methodological reflection in literary studies Via 19 key terms the book takes stock of recent scholarship and demonstrates how analyses of particular historical phenomena have modified our understanding of crucial notions like archive book event media objects style and the senses The book not only reveals a rich diversity of subjects and approaches but also identifies the most salient traits of literature and literary studies today Leading literary critics and historians offer thought provoking arguments as well as authoritative explorations of the key terms of literary studies providing students as
