Target America The Influence Of Communist Propaganda On The Us Media:

Target America James L. Tyson, 1985      The Grand Strategy that Won the Cold War Norman A. Bailey, Francis H. Marlo, Douglas E. Streusand, Paul D. Gelpi, 2016-01-14 This book demonstrates that under the leadership of President Ronald Reagan and through the mechanism of his National Security Council staff the United States developed and executed a comprehensive grand strategy involving the coordinated use of the diplomatic informational military and economic instruments of national power and that grand strategy led to the collapse of the Soviet Union In doing so it refutes three orthodoxies that Reagan and his administration deserve little credit for the end of the Cold War with most of credit going to Mikhail Gorbachev that Reagan's management of the National Security Council staff was singularly inept and that the United States is incapable of generating and implementing a grand strategy that employs all the instruments of national power and coordinates the work of all executive agencies The Reagan years were hardly a time of interagency concord but the National Security Council staff managed the successful implementation of its program nonetheless      Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1983      Gang of Five Nina J. Easton, 2001-02-28 In Gang of Five bestselling author Nina J Easton adds an important element to the history of American politics in the last thirty years This is the story of the other less well known segment of the baby boom generation These are young conservative activists who arrived on campus in the 1970s in rebellion against everything sixties and went on to overturn the political dynamics of the country in the 1980s and 1990s They've been waging what Newt Gingrich called a war without blood for three decades Gang of Five portrays the intertwining careers of five major figures BILL KRISTOL the Harvard educated elitist and publisher of the Weekly Standard is the liberal establishment's worst nightmare a witty erudite Rightist who was a leading force behind the demise of the Clinton health care plan the historic reform of welfare and the decision of House Republicans to impeach the president RALPH REED the hardball politico who helped turn an organization called the College Republicans into a kind of communist cell of the Right in the 1990s tried to give the Religious Right a softer face as leader of the Christian Coalition but was thwarted by his thirst for power and the narrow fundamentalism of his activist followers CLINT BOLICK a leading force in the spread of school choice programs and the anti affirmative action strategist who sank Lani Guinier's appointment is the idealist who seeks to convince civil rights leaders that his legal work on behalf of disadvantaged minorities is sincere and that liberal programs hurt the people they are meant to help GROVER NORQUIST the market Leninist who divides the world into good and evil is at the hub of Hillary Clinton's vast right wing conspiracy and is the architect of a no new taxes pledge signed by all major Republican candidates in the 1990s DAVID MCINTOSH the policy wonk who took the movement's war on Washington to Congress as leader of the House Republican freshmen during the Gingrich Revolution pushed his party toward confrontation with the White House and is now running for governor in Indiana In contrast to earlier generations of conservatives these leaders and their allies tasted success first with Ronald Reagan's twin victories in the 1980s and then in the 1990s with the Republican capture of Congress They play to win and have had a hand in every major insurrection from the Right over the past two decades from abortion politics to government shutdowns to political muckracking No politician can ignore their agenda or escape the new hardball rules they've written for national politics

AIM Report Accuracy in Media, inc, 1984 The Republican Noise Machine David Brock, 2005 Bestselling author David Brock documents the most important political development of the last thirty years How the Republican Right has won political power and hijacked public discourse in the United States Over the last several decades the GOP has built a powerful media machine newspapers and magazines think tanks talk radio networks op ed columnists the FOX News Channel Christian Right broadcasting book publishers and high traffic Internet sites to sell conservatism to the public and discredit its opponents David Brock's penetrating analysis of news stories from the disputed 2000 presidential election to the war in Iraq to the political battles of 2004 reveals that this booming right wing media market is largely based on bigotry ignorance and emotional manipulation closely tied to America's long standing cultural divisions and the buying power of anti intellectual traditionalists Writing with verve and deep insight Brock reaches far beyond typical bromides about media bias to produce an invaluable account of the rise of right wing media and its political consequences
