Targum and New Testament Martin McNamara, 2011 The relevance of the Targums Aramaic translations of the Hebrew Bible for the understanding of the New Testament has been a matter of dispute over the past three hundred years principally by reason of the late date of the Targum manuscripts and the nature of the Aramaic The debate has become more focused by reason of the Qumran finds of pre Christian Aramaic documents 1947 and the identification of a complete text of the Palestinian Targum of the Pentateuch in the Vatican Library Codex Neofiti 1956 Martin McNamara traces the history of the debate down to our own day and the annotated translation of all the Targums into English He studies the language situation Aramaic and Greek in New Testament Palestine and the interpretation of the Scriptures in the Targums with concepts and language similar to the New Testament Against this background relationships between the Targums and the New Testament are examined A way forward is suggested by regarding the tell like structure of the Targums with layers from different ages and a continuum running through for certain texts

The Function of Scripture in Early Jewish and Christian Tradition Craig A. Evans, James A. Sanders, 1998-02-01 The studies that make up this book explore in what ways Israel's sacred tradition developed into canonical scripture and in what ways this sacred tradition was interpreted in early Judaism and Christianity This collection will stimulate continuing investigation into the growth and interpretation of scripture in the context of the Jewish and Christian communities of faith and will serve well as a reader for graduate courses with its focus on early exegesis and intertextuality

Targum Neophyti 1 B. Barry Levy, 1986 Godly Fear or Ungodly Failure? Michael Kibbe, 2016-05-10 A cursory glance at Hebrews critique of Israel's fear at Sinai in Heb 12 18-29 suggests that the author has misunderstood or manipulated his sources In the Pentateuch the appointment of Moses as Israel's mediator receives explicit approval Exod 19 9 Deut 5 28 while Heb 12 25 labels their request for mediation a refusal to heed the word of God This book argues that Hebrews use of the Sinai narratives resides on a complex trajectory established by four points the Sinai covenant according to Exodus the reenactment of that covenant according to Deuteronomy the call for a NEW covenant according to Jeremiah and the present reality of that covenant established by God and mediated by Jesus Christ The basis for Hebrews critique arises from its insight that while Israel's request established covenant from a distance Jesus demonstrates that true covenant mediation brings two parties into a single space The purpose for Hebrews critique lies in its summons to Zion the mountain on which Jesus sits at the right hand of God as the high priestly mediator of the new covenant translations     Studies in Targum Isaiah Alberdina Houtman, 2025-04-17 Studies in Targum Isaiah Textual Witnesses Translation Techniques and Theological Explorations is the culmination of 30 years of in depth research into Targum studies This comprehensive work offers a detailed description and comparison of available manuscripts an analysis of translation techniques and essays exploring the theological perspectives of the translators The final chapter delves into the risks and opportunities of intertextual comparison with the New Testament providing a thoughtful perspective for scholars and students alike Essential for anyone interested in biblical studies this book offers valuable insights into the complexities of Targum Isaiah and its relevance in theological discourse     The Sermons on Joseph of Balai of Qenneshrin Robert R. Phenix, 2008 Robert Phenix investigates the collection of twelve Syriac poetic sermons recounting the story of Joseph in Genesis 37 and 39 50 The authorship of these poems has been disputed but this is the first study to attempt to argue from all aspects of the evidence that Balai of Qenneshrin is the author The study then examines all of the data that can be associated with Balai the religious environment of Qenneshrin and nearby Aleppo Balai s connections with the monk bishops of central Syria in the late fourth and early fifth centuries particularly Acacius of Beroea Aleppo and Rabbula of Edessa the status of chorbishops and the presence of Syriac speakers Since it is argued in this study that Balai s source for the Sermons on Joseph was a Jewish text this section also carefully examines the evidence for the Jewish community in Qenneshrin As part of the background of the author links between characters and the physical setting of the Sermons on Joseph and Qenneshrin are investigated The relationship of the Sermons on Joseph to other Syriac Joseph sources and Joseph material in the Pseudepigrapha and at Qumran is discussed followed by the question of the origin of the story which is located in a lost Greek Jewish composition The last section of the work examines the author s use of Hellenistic rhetoric and literary themes The many speeches in the Sermons on Joseph reveal rhetorical arrangements that are strikingly close to the models of arrangement found in Late Antique handbooks such as the Hermogenic Corpus Several of these arguments are examined as are the elaborate prefaces that introduce some of the individual Sermons on Joseph The literary themes and motifs of the Sermons on Joseph are explored It can be shown that some motifs known only in Syriac religious literature are employed in the Sermons on Joseph in non religious literary contexts     Septuagint, Targum and Beyond , 2019-11-11 In Septuagint Targum and Beyond leading experts in the fields of biblical textual criticism and reception history explore the relationship between the two major Jewish translation traditions of the Hebrew Bible In comparing these Greek and Aramaic versions from Jewish antiquity the essays collected here not only tackle the questions of mutual influence and common exegetical traditions but also move beyond questions of direct dependence applying insights from modern translation studies and comparing corpora beyond the Old Greek and Targum including for instance Greek and Aramaic translations found at Qumran the Samareitikon and later Greek versions
