Tarrying With The Negative Kant Hegel And The Critique Of Ideology:

Tarrying with the Negative Slavoj Žižek, 1993-10-19 In the space of barely more than five years with the publication of four pathbreaking books Slavoj Žižek has earned the reputation of being one of the most arresting insightful and scandalous thinkers in recent memory Perhaps more than any other single author his writings have constituted the most compelling evidence available for recognizing Jacques Lacan as the preeminent philosopher of our time In Tarrying with the Negative Žižek challenges the contemporary critique of ideology and in doing so opens the way for a new understanding of social conflict particularly the recent outbursts of nationalism and ethnic struggle Are we Žižek asks confined to a postmodern universe in which truth is reduced to the contingent effect of various discursive practices and where our subjectivity is dispersed through a multitude of ideological positions No is his answer and the way out is a return to philosophy This revisit to German Idealism allows Žižek to recast the critique of ideology as a tool for disclosing the dynamic of our society a crucial aspect of which is the debate over nationalism particularly as it has developed in the Balkans Žižek's home He brings the debate over nationalism into the sphere of contemporary cultural politics breaking the impasse centered on nationalisms simultaneously fascistic and anticolonial aspirations Provocatively Žižek argues that what drives nationalistic and ethnic antagonism is a collectively driven refusal of our own enjoyment Using examples from popular culture and high theory to illuminate each other opera film noir capitalist universalism religious and ethnic fundamentalism this work testifies to the fact that far more radically than the postmodern sophists Kant and Hegel are our contemporaries

Tarrying with the Negative, 2009 DIVA theoretical analysis of social conflict that uses examples from Kant Hegel Lacan popular culture and contemporary politics to critique nationalism div

The Symbolic, the Sublime, and Slavoj Žižek's Theory of Film M. Flisfeder, 2016-01-20 Returning to questions about ideology and subjectivity Flisfeder argues that Slavoj Žižek's theory of film aims to re politicize film studies and film theory bringing cinema into the fold of twenty first century politics

All for Nothing Andrew Cutrofello, 2014-08-29 Hamlet as performed by philosophers with supporting roles played by Kant Nietzsche and others A specter is haunting philosophy the specter of Hamlet Why is this Wherefore What should we do Entering from stage left the philosopher's Hamlet The philosopher's Hamlet is a conceptual character played by philosophers rather than actors He performs not in the theater but within the space of philosophical positions In All for Nothing Andrew Cutrofello critically examines the performance history of this unique role The philosopher's Hamlet personifies negativity In Shakespeare's play Hamlet's speech and action are characteristically negative he is the melancholy Dane Most would agree that he has nothing to be cheerful about Philosophers have taken Hamlet to embody specific forms of negativity that first came into view in modernity What the figure of the Sophist represented for Plato Hamlet has represented for modern philosophers Cutrofello analyzes five aspects of Hamlet's negativity his melancholy negative faith nihilism tarrying which Cutrofello distinguishes from delaying and nonexistence Along the way we meet Hamlet in the texts of Kant Coleridge Hegel Marx Schopenhauer

Kierkegaard Nietzsche Freud Russell Wittgenstein Heidegger Benjamin Arendt Schmitt Lacan Deleuze Foucault Derrida Badiou i ek and other philosophers Whirling across a kingdom of infinite space the philosopher s Hamlet is nothing if not thought provoking Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Julian Wolfreys,2017-03-14 This book is an invaluable reference guide for students of literary and cultural studies which introduces over forty of the complex terms motifs and concepts in literary and cultural theory today Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Gives students a brief introduction to each concept together with short quotations from the work of key thinkers and critics to stimulate discussion and guide genuine comprehension Supplies helpful glosses and annotations for each term concept or keyword which is discussed Offers reflective practical questions at the end of each entry to direct the student to consider a particular aspect of the quotations and the concept they address Provides explanatory notes and bibliographies to aid further research This essential volume is ideal as both a dip in reference book and a guide to literary theory for practical classroom use

Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W. Lloyd,2017-11-07 Black theology has lost its direction To reclaim its original power and to advance racial justice struggles today black theology must fully embrace blackness and theology But multiculturalism and religious pluralism have boxed in black theology forcing it to speak in terms dictated by a power structure founded on white supremacy In Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W Lloyd advances and develops black theology immodestly privileging the perspective of African Americans and employing a distinctively theological analysis As Lloyd argues secularism is entangled with the disciplining impulses of modernity with neoliberal economics and with Western imperialism but it also contaminates and castrates black theology Inspired by critics of secularism in other fields Religion of the Field Negro probes the subtle ways in which religion is excluded and managed in black culture Using Barack Obama Huey Newton and Steve Biko as case studies it shows how the criticism of secularism is the prerequisite of all criticism and it shows how criticism and grassroots organizing must go hand in hand But scholars of secularism too often ignore race and scholars of race too often ignore secularism Scholars of black theology too often ignore the theoretical insights of secular black studies scholars and race theorists too often ignore the critical insights of religious thinkers Religion of the Field Negro brings together vibrant scholarly conversations that have remained at a distance from each other until now Weaving theological sources critical theory and cultural analysis this book offers new answers to pressing questions about race and justice love and hope theorizing and organizing and the role of whites in black struggle The insights of James Cone are developed together with those of James Baldwin Sylvia Wynter and Achille Mbembe all in the service of developing a political theological vision that motivates us to challenge the racist paradigms of white supremacy The Other's War Tarik Kochi,2009-05-07 The Other's War is an intervention into a set of contemporary moral political and legal debates over the legitimacy of war and terrorism within the context of the so called global War on Terror Tarik Kochi considers how despite the variety of its approaches just war theory classical realist post Kantian poststructuralist contemporary ethical political and legal philosophy still struggles to produce a convincing account of war Focusing on the philosophical problem of the rightness of war The Other's War responds to this lack Through a discussion of a number of key Western intellectual traditions Kochi demonstrates how often conflicting and contradictory conceptions of war's rightness have developed in modernity He shows how a process of ordering violence around different notions of right has constantly redrawn the boundaries of what constitutes legitimate violence Such a process has consequences for anyone who claims to be fighting a just war Building upon this account and drawing upon the philosophical heritage of G W F Hegel and Ernst Bloch The Other's War proposes a new understanding of war not just as a social condition characterised by violent conflict and struggles for power but as the attempt of individuals and groups to realise their normative claims through violence Kochi argues that both of these aspects of war are an expression of the metaphysics of human subjectivity War begins with and is the radical exaggeration of a fundamental activity of human subjectivity in which the subject constitutes its normative and material identity realising and positing itself through acts that involve negation and violence By drawing consideration of the problem of war back to the level of a philosophical examination of the metaphysics of human subjectivity The Other's War develops a novel theory of war that helps us to better understand the nature of contemporary conflict as a process of recognition From this perspective judgment it is concluded needs to be constantly guided by the effort to recognise the ethics of the other's war

The Four Lacanian Discourses Jeanne Lorraine Schroeder, 2008-08-18 This book proposes a taxonomy of jurisprudence and legal practice based on the discourse theory of Jacques Lacan In the anglophone academy the positivist jurisprudence of H L A Hart provides the most influential account of law But just as positivism ignores the practice of law by lawyers even within the academy the majority of professors are also not pursuing Hart's positivist project Rather they are engaged in policy oriented scholarship that tries to explain law in terms of society's collective goals or in doctrinal legal scholarship that does not try to describe what law is or to supply justifications for it but which examines the internal logic of law Lacan's discourse theory has the power to differentiate the various roles of the practicing lawyer and the legal scholar It is also able to explain the striking lack of communication between diverse schools of legal scholarship and between legal academia and the legal profession Although extremely influential in Europe and South America Lacanian theory remains largely unexplored in the English speaking world outside of the field of comparative literature In taking up the jurisprudential ramifications of Lacan's work The Four Lacanian Discourses thus constitutes an original contribution to current theoretical and practical understandings of law

On Extinction Ben Ware, 2024-03-26 This path breaking book by one of the sharpest minds in contemporary philosophy will live on for a very long time Dany Nobus author of Critique of Psychoanalytic Reason Philosophy at the end of the world On Extinction takes us on a breathtaking philosophical journey through desperate territory As we face the end of all things Ben Ware argues we must face our apocalyptic future without flinching In fact extinction is the very lens through which we should examine our current reality Radical politics today should not be concerned with merely averting the worst but rather with beginning again at the end To think about the future in this way is itself a form of liberation that might incubate the necessary radical solutions we need Combining lessons from Kant Hegel Adorno and Lacan as well as drawing on popular culture and ecology Ware recasts the most urgent issue of our times and resolves that we can only consider our collective end by treating it as a starting point Schelling's Naturalism

Woodard Ben Woodard,2018-12-06 Using Schelling's philosophy Ben Woodard examines how an expanded form of naturalism changes how we conceive of the division between thought and world mathematics and motion sense and dynamics experiment and materiality as well as speculation and pragmatism Nature in Schelling's eyes is not the great outdoors or some authentic pastoral realm but the various powers processes and tendencies which run through biology chemistry physics and the very possibility of thought itself What Is Posthumanism? Cary Wolfe,2013-11-30 What does it mean to think beyond humanism Is it possible to craft a mode of philosophy ethics and interpretation that rejects the classic humanist divisions of self and other mind and body society and nature human and animal organic and technological Can a new kind of humanities posthumanities respond to the redefinition of humanity's place in the world by both the technological and the biological or green continuum in which the human is but one life form among many Exploring how both critical thought along with cultural practice have reacted to this radical repositioning Cary Wolfe one of the founding figures in the field of animal studies and posthumanist theory ranges across bioethics cognitive science animal ethics gender and disability to develop a theoretical and philosophical approach responsive to our changing understanding of ourselves and our world Then in performing posthumanist readings of such diverse works as Temple Grandin's writings Wallace Stevens's poetry Lars von Trier's Dancer in the Dark the architecture of Diller Scofidio and David Byrne and Brian Eno's My Life in the Bush of Ghosts he shows how this philosophical sensibility can transform art and culture For Wolfe a vibrant rigorous posthumanism is vital for addressing questions of ethics and justice language and trans species communication social systems and their inclusions and exclusions and the intellectual aspirations of interdisciplinarity In What Is Posthumanism he carefully distinguishes posthumanism from transhumanism the biotechnological enhancement of human beings and narrow definitions of the posthuman as the hoped for transcendence of materiality In doing so Wolfe reveals that it is humanism not the human in all its embodied and prosthetic complexity that is left behind in posthumanist thought A Theology of the Sublime Clayton Crockett,2002-01-04 A Theology of the Sublime is the first major response to the influential and controversial Radical Orthodoxy movement Clayton Crockett develops a constructive radical theology from the philosophy of Immanuel Kant a philosophy attacked by Radical Orthodoxy to show Kant's relevance to postmodern philosophy and contemporary theology The Abyss of Representation George Hartley,2003-07-16 A theoretical work a mediation on the nature of representation the Vorstellung Darstellung distinction in relation to theoretical practices of Hegelianism psychoanalysis especially Lacan and Marxism Explores the works of Kant Lacan Hegel Althusser A Commentary to Hegel's Science of

Logic David Gray Carlson, 2007-01-04 Hegel is regarded as the pinnacle of German idealism and his work has undergone an enormous revival since 1975 In this book David Gray Carlson presents a systematic interpretation of Hegel's The Science of Logic a work largely overlooked through a system of accessible diagrams identifying and explicating each of Hegel's logical derivations

The Church of Us vs. Them David E. Fitch, 2019-07-16 We are living in angry times No matter where we go what we watch or how we communicate our culture is rife with conflict Unfortunately Christians appear to be caught up in the same animosity as the culture at large We are perceived as angry judgmental and defensive fighting among ourselves in various media while the world looks on How have we failed to be a people of reconciliation and renewal in the face of such tumult Claiming that the church has lost itself in the grip of an antagonistic culture David Fitch takes a close look at what drives the vitriol in our congregations He traces the enemy making patterns in church history and diagnoses the divisiveness that marks the contemporary evangelical church Fitch shows a way for the church to be true to itself unwinding the antagonisms of our day and making space for Christ's reconciling presence in our day to day lives He offers new patterns and practices that move the church beyond making enemies to being the presence of Christ in the world helping us free ourselves from a faith that feeds on division

Picturing the Self Gen Doy, 2004-09-24 Ideas of selfhood from Descartes theory of I think therefore I am to postmodern notions of the fragmented and de-centred self have been crucial to the visual arts Gen Doy explores this relationship from Holbein's Ambassadors and the early modern period up to and beyond Marc Quinn's Self Blood Head Arguing that the importance of subjectivity for art goes far beyond self portraits she explores such topics as self expression the self work and consumption self presentation photography and the theatre of the self the marginalized beggars and asylum seekers and the real me A wide range of artists including Tracey Emin Jeff Wall Eugene Palmer and Karen Knorr are discussed as well as historical material from earlier periods

Law and Enjoyment Daniel Hourigan, 2015-06-05 This book advocates and develops a critical account of the relationship between law and the largely neglected issue of enjoyment Taking popular culture seriously as a lived and meaningful basis for a wider understanding of law beyond the strictures of legal institutions and professional practices it takes up a range of case studies from film and literature in order to consider how law is iterated through enjoyment and how enjoyment embodies law Drawing on psychoanalytic theory this book addresses issues such as the forced choice to enjoy the law the biopolitics of tyranny the enjoyment of law's contingency the trauma of the law's symbolic codification of pleasure and the futuristic vision of law's transgression In so doing it forges an important case for acknowledging and analyzing the complex relationship between power and pleasure in law one that will be of considerable interest to legal theorists as well as those with interests in the intersection of psychoanalytic and cultural theory

Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations with some twenty five new pieces or essays included This expansion has two principal purposes Firstly in keeping with the collection's aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post theory Secondly with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible the reader expands backwards to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries such as Marx Freud and Virginia Woolf This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading and footnotes that help explain difficult references The collection is ordered both historically and thematically and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection Now revised for the twenty first century it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today

Great Dragon Fantasy, The: A Lacanian Analysis Of Contemporary Chinese Thought Guanjun Wu, 2014-05-21 China has undergone a unique path of development in the post Maoist era Especially the last decade witnessed China's rapid rise to economic wealth and superpower status vis vis the severe developmental predicaments of the West financial crises socio political turbulences etc This book analyzes how the leading Chinese thinkers understand China's prosperity and rapid development today and whether there is any hidden mechanism that has been playing a crucial role of forming contemporary Chinese thinkers shared passionate endeavor of resuscitating classical Chinese ideas and thus shows how the fervor for discovering essential characteristics of Chinese thought reveals a hidden psychological mechanism

Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Literature but Were Afraid to Ask Žižek Russell Sbriglia, 2017-02-27 Challenging the widely held assumption that Slavoj Žižek's work is far more germane to film and cultural studies than to literary studies this volume demonstrates the importance of Žižek to literary criticism and theory The contributors show how Žižek's practice of reading theory and literature through one another allows him to critique complicate and advance the understanding of Lacanian psychoanalysis and German Idealism thereby urging a rethinking of historicity and universality His methodology has implications for analyzing literature across historical periods nationalities and genres and can enrich theoretical frameworks ranging from aesthetics semiotics and psychoanalysis to feminism historicism postcolonialism and ecocriticism The contributors also offer Žižekian interpretations of a wide variety of texts including Geoffrey Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice Samuel Beckett's Not I and William Burroughs's Nova Trilogy The collection includes an essay by Žižek on subjectivity in Shakespeare and Beckett
