By Shirley Hibberd* Shirley Hibberd, 1870      A Taste for Luxury in Early Modern Europe Johanna Ilmakunnas, Jon Stobart, 2017-06-29 Jon Stobart and Johanna Ilmakunnas bring together a range of scholars from across mainland Europe and the UK to examine luxury and taste in early modern Europe In the 18th century debates raged about the economic social and moral impacts of luxury whilst taste was viewed as a refining influence and a marker of rank and status This book takes a fresh comparative approach to these ideas drawing together new scholarship to examine three related areas in a wide variety of European contexts Firstly the deployment of luxury goods in displays of status and how these practices varied across space and time Secondly the processes of communicating and acquiring taste and luxury how did people obtain tasteful and luxurious goods and how did they recognise them as such Thirdly the ways in which ideas of taste and luxury crossed national political and economic boundaries what happened to established ideas of luxury and taste as goods moved from one country to another and during times of political transformation Through the analysis of case studies looking at consumption practices material culture political economy and retail marketing A Taste for Luxury in Early Modern Europe challenges established readings of luxury and taste This is a crucial volume for any historian seeking a more nuanced understanding of material culture consumption and luxury in early modern Europe

Alternate Realities Chris Rawlings, 2011-10-28 Have you ever wondered whether or not our destiny is predetermined or how much of a choice do we really have when it comes to free will in shaping our own lives especially while society and government continues to limit our circumstances This book attempts to answer these questions and more In a world set thousands of years and several millennia in the future we might find that many problems and issues we face today will persist unless we change the way we look at our world In the year 3333 A D on Planet Zeon where the sky is no longer the limit a nonconformist philosopher goes up against all odds to revive the importance of artists in a society filled with laser bolts and launch pads where original ideas are becoming a rare commodity in the face of fast paced technological mass production Will commercial materialism dominate ethical values or can people regain their spiritual independence If a picture is worth a thousand words then this book might be worth millions It is a must read for anyone who has ever struggled to be recognized for their artistic integrity in order to survive amidst such a competitive corporate world dominated by greed Its for anyone who has ever worked hard for their dreams to come true
