Photography and Ontology Donna West Brett,Natalya Lusty,2018-09-03 This edited collection explores the complex ways in which photography is used and interpreted as a record of evidence as a form of communication as a means of social and political provocation as a mode of surveillance as a narrative of the self and as an art form What makes photographic images unsettling and how do the re uses and interpretations of photographic images unsettle the self evident reality of the visual field Taking up these themes this book examines the role of photography as a revelatory medium underscored by its complex association with history memory experience and identity

The Cinema of Norman Mailer Justin Bozung,2017-09-07 The Cinema of Norman Mailer Film is Like Death not only examines the enfant terrible writer s thoughts on cinema but also features interviews with Norman Mailer himself The Cinema of Norman Mailer also explores Mailer s cinema through previously published and newly commissioned essays written by an array of film and literary scholars enthusiasts and those with a personal philosophical connection to Mailer This volume discusses the National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author and filmmaker s six films created during the years of 1947 and 1987 and contends to show how Mailer s films can be best read as cinematic delineations that visually represent many of the writer s metaphysical and ontological concerns and ideas that appear in his texts from the 1950s until his passing in 2007 By re examining Mailer s cinema through these new perspectives one may be awarded not just a deeper understanding of Mailer s desire to make films but also find a new alternative vision of Mailer himself Norman Mailer was not just a writer but more he was one of the most influential Postmodern artists of the twentieth century with deep roots in the cinema He allowed the cinema to not only influence his aesthetic approach but sanctioned it as his easiest crafted analogy for exploring sociological imagination in his writing Mailer once suggested Film is legitimately more interesting than books and with that in mind readers of Norman Mailer might begin to rethink his oeuvre through the viewfinder of the film medium as he was equally as passionate about working within cinema as he was about literature itself

The Police Procedural George N. Dove,1982 In the late 1940s and early 1950s a new kind of detective story appeared on the scene This was a story in which the mystery is solved by regular police detectives usually working in teams and using ordinary police routines This kind of narrative is customarily called the police procedural story And it is the subject of this book Though there has been numberless writers of these stories there has never been a book of criticism before Police Corruption Maurice Punch,2013-01-11 Policing and corruption are inseparable This book argues that corruption is not one thing but covers many deviant and criminal practices in policing which also shift over time It rejects the bad apple metaphor and focuses on bad orchards meaning not individual but institutional failure For in policing the organisation work and culture foster can encourage corruption This raises issues as to why do police break the law and crucially who controls the controllers Corruption is defined in a broad multi faceted way It concerns abuse of authority and trust and it takes serious form in conspiracies to break the law and to evade exposure when cops can become criminals Attention is paid to typologies of corruption with grass eaters meat eaters noble cause the forms corruption takes in diverse environments the pathways officers take into corruption and their rationalisations and to collusion in corruption from within and without the organization Comparative analyses are made of corruption scandal and reform principally in the USA UK and the Netherlands The work examines issues of control accountability and the new institutions of oversight It provides a fresh accessible overview of this under researched topic for students academics police and criminal justice officials and members of oversight agencies The Guilty Sean Slater,2013-08-15 When Homicide Detective Jacob Striker discovers a torture chamber in a steel barn down by the river he is propelled into an investigation that leads to two mysterious bombers Every few hours another victim is targeted located and then blown to smithereens Very quickly Striker realizes the attacks are not random But one obvious question remains Why With people dying at an alarming rate Striker desperately searches for an answer to this question When he discovers it a stark coldness fills him For he begins to understand The reason leads back to a police file that is now ten years old To a dark and dangerous place across the seas And to one of Striker s oldest mentors and dearest friends With time running out Striker must catch the two bombers before they finish the job and complete their kill list Otherwise there will be little left for Jacob Striker to save Little left but dust and bones Pre-Nineteen Sixty Developments in the Bill of Rights Area Paul L. Murphy,2014-04-04 Volume 2 in the 20 volume series reproducing over 300 key articles which explore the 200 year history of the rights of American citizens This title contains 23 essays on development of the Bill of Rights from a range of academic authors features some work found in previously published journals Such a collection will prove insightful for historians students of American history and those with a vested interest in historic American law Cops and Crooks and the Guilt Juan Trigos,2005-08 A coin has two faces one shows the face of a crook and the other one of a cop both are similar but different at the same time In the slums it s like flipping a coin people are forcefully assumed into certain positions Teofilo the protagonist of Cops and Crooks was made to become a crook The Guilt is a novel written with the language of life Internal poetry breaks out of the gaunt consciousness of the characters educated beings in their precarious everyday life which is filled with the presence of death Reiterations and
