The year is 1937. The place is Haarlem in the south of Holland. As the ten Boom family is celebrating 100 years of watchmaking in their home the German Nazi invasion occurs. As Christians the ten Booms reach out to the Jews and hide them during Nazi raids. Thus Corrie becomes steeped in the underground activity of protecting Jews during this perilous time in world history. Through danger suspense and dire consequences Corrie and Betsie follow God's leading. They both struggle with different moral questions and find there are no easy answers. The Hiding Place is more than the story of two sisters who end up in a concentration camp. It is an account of life's struggles of overcoming evil with love and forgiveness and of finding security amidst great insecurity. Can God truly be a hiding place for those living in great pain and insecurity? Is there really a safe place when danger is all around? Corrie ten Boom not only knew the answers to these difficult questions but she lived them out. Setting: Holland WWII. Pgs 50. Spinster Cornelia and Betsie ten Boom and their elderly father become central figures in an underground operation to rescue house and relocate persecuted Jews. But when Nazis raid their home they find only the family; their guests safely hidden. The three are brutally arrested, separated and imprisoned. In unbearable conditions they share scripture and hope with others. In a powerful moment Corrie discovers that the seeds of faith she and Betsie sowed have begun to grow in the most unlikely of hearts.
