History of the Baha'i Faith in South Carolina, A Louis Venters, 2019. The Bah Faith is increasingly acknowledged as South Carolina's second largest religion, part of the social fabric of the state. The earliest mentions of the distinctively interracial, theologically innovative faith community in the state date back to the Civil War. Black, white, and indigenous South Carolinians defied racial and religious prejudices to join the religion during the tumultuous civil rights era. From the visit of the first Bah teacher in 1910 to the Carolinian Pentecost of the 1970s and beyond, the faith has deep roots in the Palmetto State. Author and Bah historian Louis Venters provides for the first time an overview of the first century of the Bah Faith in a state with one of its strongest followings.
