forces with as many as 40 000 killed and no real gains At the same time however Tet made it clear to many in Washington that victory in Vietnam would require a still greater commitment of men and resources far more than the American people were willing to invest Storms over the Mekong is a blow by blow account of the key military events to be sure But beyond that it is also a measured reconsideration of the battles and moments that Americans thought they already knew adding up to a new history of the Vietnam War
