Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2010-03-23 The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed However having produced such great philosophers as Anselm Peter Abelard John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Peter Lombard and the towering Thomas Aquinas it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers concepts issues institutions and events making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought Gersonides' The Wars of the Lord, Treatise Three Levi ben Gershom, 1977 Jewish Translation History Robert Singerman, 2002-01-01 A classified bibliographic resource for tracing the history of Jewish translation activity from the Middle Ages to the present day providing the researcher with over a thousand entries devoted solely to the Jewish role in the east to west transmission of Greek and Arab learning and science into Latin or Hebrew Other major sections extend the coverage to modern times taking special note of the absorption of European literature into the Jewish cultural orbit via Hebrew Yiddish or Judezmo translations for instance or the translation and reception of Jewish literature written in Jewish languages into other languages such as Arabic English French German or Russian This polyglot bibliography the first of its kind contains over 2 600 entries is enhanced by a vast number of additional bibliographic notes leading to reviews and related resources and is accompanied by both an author and a subject index

Christians, Muslims, and Jews in Medieval and Early Modern Spain Mark D. Meyerson, Edward D.
