Snarling Viscera New Poetry

Danine Farquharson, Sean Farrell

Snarling Viscera New Poetry:

Children of the Snarl & Other Poems Marne Kilates, 1988 Writing Home Elmer Kennedy-Andrews, 2008 The idea of place and of being displaced is a powerful leit motif in Northern Irish poetry It is here explored in depth from the 1960s to the present day Ideas of home place and identity have been continually questioned re imagined and re constructed in Northern Irish poetry Concentrating on the period since the outbreak of the Troubles in the late 1960s this study provides a detailed consideration of the work of several generations of poets from Hewitt and MacNeice to Fiacca and Montague to Simmons Heaney Mahon and Longley to Muldoon Carson Paulin and McGuckian to McDonald Morrissey Gillis and Flynn It traces the extent to which their writing represents a move away from concepts of rootedness and towards a deterritorialized poetics of displacement mobility openness and pluralism in an era of accelerating migration and globalisation In the new readings of place inherited maps are no longer reliable and home is no longer the stable ground of identity but seems instead to be always where it is not The crossing of boundaries and the experience of diaspora open up new understandings of the relations between places a new sense of the permeability and contingency of cultures and new concepts of identity and home Professor ELMER KENNEDY ANDREWS teaches in the Department of English at the University of Ulster Shadows of the Gunmen Danine Farquharson, Sean Farrell, 2008 The first interdisciplinary study of violence and the modern Irish experience Shadows of the Gunmen contributes to both Irish studies and the broader examination of violence in the modern world Providing both examples of and an introduction to recent scholarship that addresses the representations of violence Shadows of the Gunmen probes the connections between political historical violence and aesthetic representations thereof Scholars have long understood the key roles played by violence in the making of modern Ireland In recent years studies on violence have become increasingly creative and sophisticated as scholars have used new analytical lenses to confront the real challenges faced in writing violence Much of the best work in this new literature examines the complex relationships between violence and its representation Shadows of the Gunmen provides a coherent introduction to the latest scholarship With essays from historians film scholars literary critics and philosophers Shadows of the Gunmen is both relevant to the particular Irish experience and the broader contemporary world Violence may not speak but violence is represented and these depictions are continually interrogated and or contested in public and private arenas across Ireland and abroad This volume of essays will explore and probe the connection between political historical violence and aesthetic representations of such violence The first interdisciplinary study of violence and the modern Irish experience Shadows of the Gunmen is a major contribution to both Irish studies and the broader examination of violence in the modern world The Sun Keeps Setting William Doreski, 2000-08-29 The Sun Keeps Setting examines in memoir form the difficulties of dealing with aging and illness Written as a daily journal journal thereby resisting outline it focuses on my eighty one year old fathers 1996 bypass surgery and the effect it had on the rest of the family It deals with the immediately difficulties of complex medical decisions the prospect of long term nursing home confinement financial strain and potential ruin and the inevitable dredging up of the past such crises engender I have dwelt at some length on the experience of growing up with my father and consequently define him through my own life Being on the leading edge of the baby boom generation as the media keeps reminding me I am experiencing a complex series of problems most people in my generation will have to face My book offers no expertise on aging Medicare Social Security or contemporary medicine Those subjects are covered by other sources But it does offer a perspective that a huge number of people in my generation should appreciate since Ive come to realize that in many ways Im more typical of that generation than I had once thought The first in my family to attend college unsupported by family resources but bound to my family in many other ways not all of them sentimental Ive experienced an alienating class shift without a corresponding financial gain The experiences portrayed in this book constitute a body of knowledge accumulated without effort distinguishing it from the knowledge afforded me by education and I believe it speaks to whatever heart and soul my generation have
