Sobre Azul Blue Envelope:

The Feminist Encyclopedia of Spanish Literature: N-Z Janet Pérez, Maureen Ihrie, 2002 Spanish literature includes some of the world's greatest works and authors. It is also one of the most widely studied. This reference looks at the literature of Spain from the perspective of women's studies. Though the volume focuses on the literature of Spain written in Castilian, it also includes survey entries on the present state of women's literature in Catalan, Galician, and Basque. Included are hundreds of alphabetically arranged entries for numerous topics related to Spanish literature, including literary periods and genres, significant characters and character types, major authors and works, various specialized topics. Each entry discusses how the topic relates to women's studies. Entries for male authors discuss their attitudes toward women. Female writers are considered for the restrictive cultural contexts in which they wrote. Specific works are examined for their representations of female characters and their handling of women's issues. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and closes with a brief bibliography. The volume concludes with a list of works for further reading. Latin American Theatre Review, 1967 can project outward into liminal spaces of the sky or the sea A very basic paradox of Christian mystical experience of abasement and magnification haunts Atencia's work She has made her own one of its fundamental tenets the purging of self the shedding of all trace of worldly attachment in order to make room for experience of a different reality the self's sense of nothingness in the face of beauty is a prized moment in and of itself it is sublime Atencia's definitive manner classically shaped verse in the tradition of the pure poetry of the Generation of 1927 which makes myth of a womanly self is amply explored in this first major English edition of her work to appear since 1987 Maria Victoria Atencia was born in Malaga Andalusia in 1931 and has lived there or in the country thereabouts all of her life Although trained originally as a pianist she chose a vocation for poetry instead publishing her first work in 1953 and continuing to publish to the present day In 2010 she was given the Federico Garcia Lorca prize for poetry in recognition of a lifetime of achievement Roberta Quance is Senior Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese Studies at Queen's University Belfast She is author of books on mythology and modernity in modern literature and desire in the poetry of Lorca as well as articles on women writers and artists associated with the Generation of 1927 and translations of work by Carlos Piera
