Struggling for Recognition Doron Shultziner, 2010-11-18 Struggling for Recognition posits that the drive for personal recognition is a prime motivation behind the pursuit of democracy The book presents an alternative to the theories of social and political changes that fail to test the causal assumption they make about human psychology The theory presented underscores a fundamental aspect of human nature the pursuit of recognition that is the drive for positive self esteem and status and the aversion of negative self esteem and subordination This pursuit of recognition becomes the impetus for action and is used to overcome fear as well as rational costs and benefits calculations involved in collective action The book examines the mechanisms by which this disposition is triggered and converted into political pressures that eventually lead to democratic reforms Struggling for Recognition will be of interest to a wide range of scholars in political science including those researching social movements social change democracy and democratic transitions A unique multidisciplinary work it will foster better understanding of key political events such as democratic transitions

Discovering the Culture of Childhood Emily Plank, 2016-07-11 View the culture of childhood through a whole new lens Identify age based bias and expand your outlook on and understanding of early childhood as a culture Examine various elements of childhood culture language belief economics arts and social structure to understand children's dispositions of questioning engagement and cooperation Emily

Plank specializes in play based education diversity and culture in early childhood education and outdoor learning In 2011 the Iowa Association for the Education of Young Children identified Emily as one of seven emerging leaders She earned her bachelor s degree from Pepperdine University She and her family currently reside in Lausanne Switzerland Art-Centered Learning Across the Curriculum Julia Marshall,David M. Donahue,2015-04-28 This handbook provides teachers with a framework for implementing inquiry based substantive art integration across the curriculum along with the background knowledge and models needed to do this Drawing on ideas from Harvard Project Zero the authors make a clear and compelling argument for how contemporary art supports student learning The text features subject specific chapters co written by teaching scholars from that discipline Each chapter includes examples of contemporary art with explanations of how these works explore the fundamental concepts of the academic discipline The book concludes with a chapter on an integrated inquiry based curriculum inspired by contemporary art including guidelines for developing art projects teachers can adapt to their students interests and needs This resource is appropriate for art teachers as well as subject area teachers who are not familiar with using contemporary art in the classroom I am so excited about this book The visuals alone are enough to clue teachers in on ways that Contemporary Art can blow their curriculums open to become engaging relevant vehicles for their students to ride across the 21st century From the first scan readers cannot help but see the power of Contemporary Art in transforming classrooms and learning From the Foreword by Lois Hetland professor and chair of art education at Massachusetts College of Art and Design and co author of Studio Thinking 2 Art Centered Learning Across the Curriculum well surpasses its goal to demystify contemporary art for K 12 teachers In this important text the authors present a direct challenge to educators and public education reformers of all stripes to embrace the arts and design practices across disciplines as a potent means for building beautiful minds not merely as a tool for beautifying dingy school corridors This new book serves as a primer for fashioning the kinds of integrated curriculum frameworks required for success in today s global knowledge economy James Haywood Rolling Jr chair of art education and a dual professor in art education and teaching and leadership Syracuse University History in Practice 2nd edition Ludmilla Jordanova,2016-07-28 History in Practice explores the discipline s breadth its complexities and the tasks it takes on This study by one of the liveliest and most acute practitioners in the field demystifies what historians do It looks at history as an academic discipline but also engages with the use of historical ideas in the wider world Historical work has public consequences and draws considerable energy from contemporary preoccupations For this new edition of her respected and widely used book Ludmilla Jordanova has revised the text and added a new chapter that takes into account recent world events She discusses the role of the internet globalisation world history and the current enthusiasm for military history This book is essential reading for all students needing an understanding of history as a discipline Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie,Peter Burns,Catherine Palmer,2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers Research Methods for International Human Rights Law Damian Gonzalez-Salzberg, Loveday Hodson, 2019-06-13 The study and teaching of international human rights law is dominated by the doctrinal method A wealth of alternative approaches exists but they tend to be discussed in isolation from one another This collection focuses on cross theoretical discussion that brings together an array of different analytical methods and theoretical lenses that can be used for conducting research within the field As such it provides a coherent accessible and diverse account of key theories and methods A distinctive feature of this collection is that it adopts a grounded approach to international human rights law through demonstrating the application of specific research methods to individual case studies By applying the approach under discussion to a concrete case it is possible to better appreciate the multiple understandings of international human rights law that are missed when the field is only comprehended through the doctrinal method Furthermore since every contribution follows the same uniform structure this allows for fruitful comparison between different approaches to the study of our discipline Political Affairs Earl Browder, 2002 A theoretical and political magazine of scientific socialism Anthropology Tim Ingold, 2018-04-27 Humanity is at a crossroads We face mounting inequality escalating political violence warring fundamentalisms and an environmental crisis of planetary proportions How can we fashion a world that has room for everyone for generations to come What are the possibilities in such a world of collective human life These are urgent questions and no discipline is better placed to address them than anthropology It does so by bringing to bear the wisdom and experience of people everywhere whatever their backgrounds and walks of life In this passionately argued book Tim Ingold relates how a field of study once committed to ideals of progress collapsed amidst the ruins of war and colonialism only to be reborn as a discipline of hope destined to take centre stage in debating the most pressing intellectual ethical and political issues of our time He shows why anthropology matters to us all Introducing Polity's Why It Matters series In these short and lively books world leading thinkers make the case for the importance of their subjects and aim to inspire a new generation of students
