The Blending Of Races Marginality And Identity In World Perspective:

'Mixed Race' Studies Jayne O. Ifekwunigwe, 2015-03-24 Mixed race studies is one of the fastest growing as well as one of the most important and controversial areas in the field of race and ethnic relations Bringing together pioneering and controversial scholarship from both the social and the biological sciences as well as the humanities this reader charts the evolution of debates on race and mixed race from the nineteenth to the twenty first century The book is divided into three main sections tracing the origins miscegenation moral degeneracy and genetics mapping contemporary and foundational discourses mixed race identities politics and celebration debating definitions multiraciality census categories and critiques This collection adds a new dimension to the growing body of literature on the topic and provides a comprehensive history of the origins and directions of mixed race research as an intellectual movement For students of anthropology race and ethnicity it is an invaluable resource for examining the complexities and paradoxes of racial thinking across space time and disciplines

Rethinking 'Mixed Race' David Parker, Miri Song, 2001-05-20 One of the fastest growing ethnic populations in many Western societies is that of people of mixed descent However when talking about multicultural societies or mixed race the discussion usually focuses on people of black and white heritage The contributors to this collection rectify this with a broad and pluralistic approach to the experiences of mixed race people in Britain and the USA The contributors argue that people of mixed descent reveal the arbitrary and contested logic of categorisation underpinning racial divisions Falling outside the prevailing definitions of racialised identities their histories and experiences illuminate the complexities of identity formation in the contemporary multicultural context The authors examine a range of issues These include gender transracial and intercountry adoptions in Britain and the US interracial partnering and marriage mixed race and family in the English African diaspora theorising of mixed race that transcends the black white binary and includes explorations of mixtures among non white minority groups and the social and political evolution of multiracial panethnicity

Racial and Cultural Minorities George Eaton Simpson, J. Milton Yinger, 2013-06-29 We need scarcely note that the topic of this book is the stuff of headlines Around the world political economic educational military religious and social relations of every variety have a racial or ethnic component One cannot begin to understand the history or contemporary situation of the United States the Soviet Union China Zimbabwe South Africa Great Britain Lebanon Mexico Canada indeed almost any land without careful attention to the influence of cultural and racial divisions Preparation of this new edition has brought a strong sense of déjà vu with regard both to the persistence of old patterns of discrimination even if in new guises and also to the persistence of limited and constraining explanations We have also found however rich new empirical studies new theoretical perspectives and greatly expanded activity and analyses from members of minority groups Although this edition is an extensive revision with reference both to the data used and the theoretical approaches examined we have not shifted from our basically analytical perspective We strongly support efforts to reduce discrimination and prejudice but these can be successful only if we try to understand where we are and what forces are creating the existing situation We hope to reduce the tendency to use declarations and condemnations of other persons actions as substitutes for an investigation of their causes and consequences

The Mechanisms of Racialization Beyond the Black/White Binary Bianca Gonzalez-Sobrinho, Devon R. Goss, 2020-05-21 This book focuses on the mechanisms that undergird the operation of racialization and works to empirically define the specific mechanisms by which racialization outside of black white paradigm operates The contributors highlight the advantages and benefits of using case studies from outside of the black white racial boundary in the social scientific study of racism racial identity racial meaning and racial representation Their contributions can be grouped into three specific areas of focus the investigation of the relationship between racialization and the state the interplay between racialization and identities and the role of racialization in the media Taken together the book lays out a roadmap for future study of racialization and the study of race beyond the racial categories of black and white Serving as a guiding point to future research this book will be of interest to all scholars of race and those seeking to understand the ideologies actions interactions structures and social practices associated with racialization This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

The Creation of the British Atlantic World Elizabeth Mancke, Carole Shammas, 2015-10-15 Was the British Atlantic shaped more by imperial rivalries or by the actions of subnational groups with a variety of economic social and religious agendas The Creation of the British Atlantic World analyzes the interrelationship between these competing explanations for the development of the British Atlantic by examining migration patterns on both the macro and micro level It also scrutinizes the roles played by trade religion ethnicity and class in linking Atlantic borders and the increasingly complicated legal intellectual and emotional relationship between the British sovereign and colonial charterholders Contributors include Joyce E Chaplin John E Crowley David Barry Gaspar April Lee Hatfield James Horn Ray A Kea Elizabeth Mancke Philip D Morgan William M Offutt Robert Olwell Carole Shammas Wolfgang Splitter Mark L Thompson Karin Wulf Avihu Zakai

Anglo-Indian Women in Transition Sudarshana Sen, 2017-08-03 The study considers two generations of Anglo Indian women in post colonial India and their social interaction with their community It explores Anglo Indian women as part of a cultural whole and as participants in the mainstream cultural claims of India It notably highlights the marginalisation of Anglo Indian women in decision making focusing on the multiple patriarchal dominations they face and how it impacts on their role within society It argues that the historical gendering of the Anglo Indian community has concrete consequences in terms of familial cultural and organizational links with the diaspora perceptions and attitudes of other Indian communities towards the Anglo Indian community in schools neighborhoods and workplaces and significant discriminations based on colour of skin economic resources and conformity to gender stereotypes Examining how different forms of race class and gender discrimination intersect in the lives and experiences of Anglo Indian women this work provides insights into contemporary gender relations in India and is a key read for scholars in gender and sociology as well as minority and diaspora studies

The Seven Deadly Sins Stanford M. Lyman, 1989-01-01 When Stanford M Lyman authored The Seven Deadly Sins Society and Evil in 1978 it was hailed by Alasdair MacIntyre as a book of absorbing interest and importance_ that places us all in his debt By Nelson Hart as a masterful and thought provoking book_ that is the only scholarly treatment of sin that is so well informed by the best of ancient through modern perspectives By James A Aho as a work whose abstract hardly does justice to the scholarly and detailed analysis of sin And by Harry Cohen as a book_ that stands as a beautiful illustration of what holistic idiosyncratic interdisciplinary and creative thinking and writing can bring to bear on the age old problem of society and evil The American Sociological Association's section on the Sociology of the Emotions selected this book as one of the works that laid the foundations for the study of pride lust envy and anger basic sentiments embedded in the social process For this revised and expanded edition Lyman has written a new chapter Sentiments Sin and Social Conflict Toward a Sociology of the Emotions The new edition will be a valuable work for courses in social psychology ethics deviance and the sociology of morals and of religion

Sex, Love, Race Martha Hodes, 1999 Since the colonial era North America has been defined and continually redefined by the intersections of sex violence and love across racial boundaries Motivated by conquest economics desire and romance such crossings have profoundly affected American society by disturbing dominant ideas about race and sexuality Sex Love Race provides a historical foundation for contemporary discussions of sex across racial lines which despite the numbers of interracial marriages and multi racial children remains a controversial issue today The first historical anthology to focus solely and widely on the subject Sex Love Race gathers new essays by both younger and well known scholars which probe why and how sex across racial boundaries has so threatened Americans of all colors and classes Traversing the whole of American history from liaisons among Indians Europeans and Africans to twentieth century social scientists fascination with sex between Asian Americans and whites the essays cover a range of regions and of racial ethnic and sexual identities in North America Back cover

Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011: The making of the Luso-Asian world, intricacies of engagement Laura Jarnagin, 2011 Five hundred years later a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue duree The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that as a rule combine original archival and or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives Luso Asian communities real and imagined and Luso Asian heritage material and symbolic are studied with depth and insight The range of thematic chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceedings is truly remarkable showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso Asian interactions in the longer term but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion After all archives from all over the world from Rio de Janeiro to London from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso Asian relations

when duly explored by resourceful scholars
