The Bondwoman's Narrative Educational Companion Package Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2002-08 A Companion to American Fiction, 1780 - 1865 Shirley Samuels, 2008-04-15 This Companion presents the current state of criticism in the field of American fiction from the earliest declarations of nationhood to secession and civil war Draws heavily on historical and cultural contexts in its consideration of American fiction Relates the fiction of the period to conflicts about territory and sovereignty and to issues of gender race ethnicity and identity Covers different forms of fiction including children s literature sketches polemical pieces historical romances Gothic novels and novels of exploration Considers both canonical and lesser known authors including James Fennimore Cooper Hannah Foster Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville and Harriet Beecher Stowe Treats neglected topics such as the Western novel science and the novel and American fiction in languages other than English The Transatlantic Gothic Novel and the Law, 1790-1860 Bridget M. Marshall, 2016-02-17 Tracing the use of legal themes in the gothic novel Bridget M Marshall shows these devices reflect an outpouring of anxiety about the nature of justice On both sides of the Atlantic novelists like William Godwin Mary Shelley Charles Brockden Brown and Hannah Crafts question the foundations of the Anglo American justice system through their portrayals of criminal and judicial procedures and their use of found documents and legal forms as key plot devices As gothic villains from Walpole s Manfred to Godwin s Tyrrell to Stoker s Dracula manipulate the law and legal system to expand their power readers are confronted with a legal system that is not merely ineffective at stopping villains but actually enables them to inflict ever greater harm on their victims By invoking actual laws like the Black Act in England or the Fugitive Slave Act in America gothic novels connect the fantastic horrors that constitute their primary appeal with much more shocking examples of terror and injustice Finally the gothic novel s preoccupation with injustice is just one element of many that connects the genre to slave narratives and to the horrors of American slavery Fictions of America Judie Newman, 2007-12-04 The Internet has had a huge impact on channels of communication and information reaching across time and space to connect the world through globalisation In this Internet led world story links to story windows open on new stories and no overall authority establishes priority This sense of globalisation has raised many questions for contemporary American Novelists primarily the usefulness or redundancy of narrative and its potentially adaptive function What are the right stories for such a broadband world How do contemporary American novelists respond to issues such as the influence of the multinational corporation and its predecessors human rights Imperialism the literary work as a marketable commodity translation as betrayal data overload and the implosion of the virtual into the biosphere Is globalisation inevitable or is it a fiction which fiction turns into reality Fictions of America explores these questions and looks at the ways in which India China and Africa can be said to have underwritten American culture how literature has been marketed globally and how novelists have answered back to power with resistant fictions Judie Newman examines a wide range of fiction from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century

including the transnational adoption narrative short story historical novel slave narrative international bestseller and Western to illustrate her argument Looking closely at authors such as Bharati Mukherjee John Updike Emily Prager Hannah Crafts Zora Neale Hurston David Bradley Peter Heg and Cormac McCarthy Fictions of America provides a bold response to the crucial questions raised by globalisation

The Bondswoman's Narrative Hannah Crafts, 2002-04-02 Thought to be the first novel written by a Black female slave this work is both a historically important literary event and a gripping autobiographical story When her master is betrothed to a woman who conceals a tragic secret Hannah Crafts a young slave on a wealthy North Carolina plantation runs away in a bid for her freedom up North Pursued by slave hunters imprisoned by a mysterious and cruel captor held by sympathetic strangers and forced to serve a demanding new mistress she finally makes her way to freedom in New Jersey Her compelling story provides a fascinating view of American life in the mid 1800s and the literary conventions of the time Written in the 1850s by a runaway slave The Bondswoman's Narrative is a provocative literary landmark and a significant historical event that will captivate audiences Includes an updated preface adding additional context about the author's incredible life

Engaging Tradition, Making It New Stephanie Brown, Éva Tettenborn, 2020-12-15 Engaging Tradition Making It New offers a rich collection of fresh scholarly and pedagogical approaches to new African American literature Organized around the theme of transgression the collection focuses on those writers who challenge the reading habits and expectations of students and instructors whether by engaging themes and literary forms not usually associated with African American literature or by departing from traditional modes of approaching historical social or legal struggles Each chapter offers a specific reading of a particular novel memoir or poetry collection sometimes in concert with a second related text and suggests both a useful critical context and one or more pedagogical approaches Engaging Tradition Making It New points the way toward exciting new methods of teaching and researching authors in this dynamic field
