The Boxing Champion:

The Boxing Champion Sean L. Glenn, 2011-11 Heavyweight Boxing Champions Terry Middleton, 2021-05-28 This book is dedicated to my grandfather Clarence Middleton who boxed while in the United States Army during WWI and my Father Dennis Middleton who boxed while in the United States Navy during WWII My first memories were watching my Dad workout when I was a young kid He used Boxing and weight training routines as a way to exercise after the war The Boxing Champion, a Magnificent, Long, Complete Tale of the Ring!. , The Champion Zdec Quintero, 2009-05-29 A story of a boxing champion haunted by the death of a boxing opponent and the tragedy he caused upon the family But his big heart and sensitive spirit put him in the road to reconciliation The Boxing Champion Sean Glenn, 2013-08-03 This book is about a Black Family where the couple are Certified Public Accountants and they own a Accounting Firm they have two children and the Husband turns Professional Boxer and goes on to win the World Welterweight Boxing Title George Dixon Jason Winders, 2021-09-13 Winner 2022 NASSH Book Award Monograph On September 6 1892 a diminutive Black prizefighter brutally dispatched an overmatched white hope in the New Orleans Carnival of Champions boxing tournament That victory sparked celebrations across Black communities nationwide but fostered unease among sporting fans and officials delaying public acceptance of mixed race fighting for half a century This turn echoed the nation s disintegrating relations between whites and Blacks and foreshadowed America s embrace of racial segregation In this work of sporting and social history we have a biography of Canadian born Boston raised boxer George Dixon 1870 1908 the first Black world champion of any sport and the first Black world boxing champion in any division George Dixon The Short Life of Boxing s First Black World Champion 1870 1908 chronicles the life of the most consequential Black athlete of the nineteenth century and details for the first time his Carnival appearance perhaps the most significant bout involving a Black fighter until Jack Johnson began his reign in 1908 Yet despite his triumphs Dixon has been lost to history overshadowed by Black athletes whose activism against white supremacy far exceeded his own George Dixon reveals the story of a man trapped between the white world he served and the Black world that worshipped him By ceding control to a manipulative white promoter Dixon was steered through the white power structure of Gilded Age prizefighting becoming world famous and one of North America s richest Black men Unable to hold on to his wealth however and battered by his vices a depleted Dixon was abandoned by his white supporters just as the rising tide of Jim Crow limited both his prospects and the freedom of Blacks nationwide Primo Carnera Joseph S. Page, 2014-01-10 At over six and a half feet tall and nearly 300 pounds heavyweight champion Primo Carnera was a giant for his times but today the Ambling Alp is too often written off as an unskilled oaf and a product of the mob dealings that plagued boxing during the 1930s He may not have been a natural in the ring but he worked as hard as any boxer to learn his craft to be in top condition and he repeatedly showed that he was tougher than nails This biography details Carnera s early life and boxing career his success as a fighter as well as accusations of fight fixing his strengths and limitations in the ring and his later career as a wrestler The World Colored Heavyweight Championship, 1876-1937 Mark Allen Baker, 2020-08-25 For six decades the World Colored Heavyweight Championship was a useful tool of racial oppression the existence of the title far more important to the white public than its succession of champions It took some extraordinary individuals most notably Jack Johnson to challenge the color line in the ring although the title and the black fighters who contended for it continued until the reign of Joe Louis a generation later This history traces the advent and demise of the Championship the stories of the 28 professional athletes who won it and the demarcation of the color line both in and out of the ring Joe Gans Colleen Aycock, Mark Scott, 2008-10-31 Joe Gans captured the world lightweight title in 1902 becoming the first black American world title holder in any sport Gans was a master strategist and tactician and one of the earliest practitioners of scientific boxing As a black champion reigning during the Jim Crow era he endured physical assaults a stolen title bankruptcy and numerous attempts to destroy his reputation Four short years after successfully defending his title in the 42 round Greatest Fight of the Century Joe Gans was dead of tuberculosis This biography features original round by round ringside telegraph reports of his most famous and controversial fights a complete fight history photographs and early newspaper drawings and cartoons Boxers: Champions Forever A.J.
