Scandinavian Museums and Cultural Diversity Katherine J. Goodnow, Hacı Akman, 2008-09 Museums across the world are facing the task of capturing reflecting and representing the notion of complex identities personal religious and ethnic Narratives of national allegiances are being slowly replaced and supplemented by indigenous and minority voices providing a more complex understanding of diversity especially where intangible heritage is called on as a witness The approach taken by Scandinavian museums in response to this challenge highlights the hybrid forms of cultural diversity and how they interrelate and work together By bringing together debates and discussions of identity and diversity this volume offers a particular insight into a broad geographic region and its diverse people from the Sami and the limit to new migrants It also presents a set of historical views on the formation of national museums and their contested perceptions of identity Whilst developing new arguments and furthering an ongoing debate it offers museum curators possible ways forward BOOK JACKET

Strolling through Florence Mario Erasmo,2017-11-30 To walk through Florence is to step into one of the most remarkable histories of any European city From its establishment by Julius Caesar in the first century BC through its Golden Age at the epicentre of the Italian Renaissance to its position as an iconic cultural destination in the twenty first century Florence is a small city that packs a lot of punch This is the city of Dante and Boccaccio Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo the Medici Botticelli

Donatello and the Mad Monk Savonarola Their stories permeate every corner of Florence but the city s contemporary scene is just as alluring from cutting edge art and fashion to food It is only by exploring Florence on foot that the visitor can truly experience everything the city has to offer The Oregon trail: sketches of prairie and Rocky-mountain life.
