Duchess D.A. Brooks, 2013-05-20 The Duchess has a sassy attitude and audible voice commanding respect looking for everything but love. She stands five feet six inches with a velvety apricot skin tone that complemented her long silky black hair and stunning gray eyes. Which turned platinum depending on the placement of the sun where her money ticket. Her body's dainty despite her unhappy childhood and fiery temper. She's the author of her own demise. Who shows and amplifies how sad she is from the premature death of her mother. Throughout these trials she gives the impression of detaching herself from the streets finding God hears and sees. She learns valuable lessons while cascading the streets of Chicago. Helping with changing her disbelief in her wretched soul. When one single person helps to cherish those times of her mom's love although still wishing for her existence. His love helps her cope with the death and makes her face this world which comes with powerful lessons and love's vicissitudes. This urban story will give you laughter with a few unexpected twists bringing you to tears feeling a gangster boo could change.

New York Magazine, 1973-11-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.
