Snow Man John Hornby In Canadas Barren Lands:

Snow Man Malcolm Waldron,1997 Hornby who came from an affluent British family emigrated to Canada in 1904 and fell in love with the Canadian North Known as a man who could deal with any situation however adverse he seemed to seek out hardship According to legend he could out Indian the Indians in his ability to survive in the northern wilds and often set out into the bush with little more than a rifle a gillnet a bag of flour and tea His strange and solitary ways earned him the nickname Hermit of the North and old timers often described him as bushed or bush queer as a result of spending too much time in the bush Inheriting a Canoe Paddle Misao Dean,2013-01-01 Inheriting a Canoe Paddle emphasizes the importance of self consciously evaluating the meaning we give to canoes as objects and to canoeing as an activity Snow Man Malcolm Thomas Waldron,1997 Far to our north lie Canada s Barren Lands one of the last great unexplored areas of North America For half a million square miles fierce blizzards rule in winter and unending sunlight holds sway in the brief torrid summer In 1923 John Hornby and James Critchell Bullock staked their lives on the honor of being the first men of European descent to live off the Barrens for an entire year supported only by their wits and their weapons This narrative of their journey holds all the vivid interest of a great novel Reading it today we share in the sufferings and triumphs of the two explorers the canoeing of and portaging across the endless taiga the grinding hunger they endured the awe of watching a million strong caribou herd stampede across their camp the handling of their dogs such as Whitey their lead Samoyed on whom their lives depend and the satisfaction of achieving their ultimate goal Snow Man is an epic of true adventure and a testament to the human capacity to endure hardships beyond what many of us imagine possible Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo,1984-01-01 Here is a list of three dozen of the top literary locales in the country The selection of sites is necessarily subjective yet it attempts to represent geographical historical social and cultural concerns as well as strictly literary interests Had this list been prepared by the editors of Michelin Guide they would have added asterisks or stars to the entries Interesting Worth a detour Worth a journey It is the opinion of the author of Canadian Literary Landmarks that all thirty six sites are Worth a journey It is recognized that the average person is unlikely to visit No 1 not to mention No 36 but as these sites happen to be the first and last entries in the book they mark a convenient and symbolic beginning and ending No 1 being L Anse aux Meadows Epaves Bay Nfld and No 36 being the North Pole NWT Snow Man.
