Love, Power, and Gender in Seventeenth-Century French Fairy Tales Bronwyn Reddan,2020-12 Love is a key ingredient in the stereotypical fairy tale ending in which everyone lives happily ever after This romantic formula continues to influence contemporary ideas about love and marriage but it ignores the history of love as an emotion that shapes and is shaped by hierarchies of power including gender class education and social status This interdisciplinary study questions the idealization of love as the ultimate happy ending by showing how the conteuses the women writers who dominated the first French fairy tale vogue in the 1690s used the fairy tale genre to critique the power dynamics of courtship and marriage Their tales do not sit comfortably in the fairy tale canon as they explore the good the bad and the ugly effects of love and marriage on the lives of their heroines Bronwyn Reddan argues that the conteuses scripts for love emphasize the importance of gender in determining the right way to love in seventeenth century France Their version of fairy tale love is historical and contingent rather than universal and timeless This conversation about love compels revision of the happily ever after narrative and offers incisive commentary on the gendered scripts for the performance of love in courtship and marriage in seventeenth century France The Lives of Texts Andrzej Kowalczyk,Katarzyna Pisarska,2014-07-24 The Lives of Texts Exploring the Metaphor examines various instances of textual subsistence implied by the title Drawing on the parallel between a text and a living organism the contributors analyze various literary texts ranging from the Middle Ages to postmodernity as well as film adaptations and the graphic novel Apart from the works of canonical writers attention is also drawn to some long forgotten authors along with the most recent instances of popular literature and culture The exploration of the title metaphor allows the contributors to trace life like phenomena e g textual birth maturation dissemination death and resurrection in the texts of writers so remote from each other as Layamon Thomas More Mary Shelley Charles Williams Ursula Le Guin A S Byatt Peter Ackroyd Iain Banks J K Rowling or Neil Gaiman Folktales and Fairy Tales Anne E.
