So What Is Justice Anyway:

Whose Body is it Anyway? Cécile Fabre, 2006-04-06 In the prevailing liberal ethos if there is one thing that is beyond the reach of others it is our body in particular and our person in general our legal and political tradition is such that we have the right to deny others access to our person and body even though doing so would harm those who need personal services from us or body parts However we lack the right to use ourselves as we wish in order to raise income even though we do not necessarily harm others by doing so even though we might in fact benefit them by doing so Cécile Fabre's aim in this book is to show that according to the principles of distributive justice which inform most liberal democracies both in practice and in theory it should be exactly the other way around that is if it is true that we lack the right to withhold access to material resources from those who need them we also lack the right to withhold access to our body from those who need it but we do under some circumstances have the right to decide how to use it in order to raise income More specifically she argues in favour of the confiscation of body parts and personal services as well as of the commercialization of organs sex and reproductive capacities The Myth of the Individual Charles Wesley Wood, 1927 So What Is Justice Anyway? Chelsea Luthringer, 2000-12-15 Discusses the concept of justice its role in daily life differing views of justice how governments achieve justice and individuals and organizations that have worked for justice Shell Shock: The Diary of Tommy Atkins Neil Blower, 2011-10-04 This short diary style novel by a British army veteran chronicles the difficulties faced by Tommy a 23 year old squaddie as he desperately tries to conquer post traumatic stress disorder PTSD shell shock His over emotional responses to the stresses of everyday life post office queues a trip to Ikea and his relationship with his family and girlfriend eventually lead to alienation and suicidal urges Told in the vernacular with humour and personal understanding the story highlights the work of the Charity Combat Stress in rehabilitating returning troops The Schopenhauerian Mind David Bather Woods, Timothy Stoll, 2023-11-14 Arthur Schopenhauer 1788 1860 is now recognised as a figure of canonical importance to the history of philosophy Schopenhauer founded his system on a highly original interpretation of Kant's philosophy developing an entirely novel and controversial worldview guided centrally by his striking conception of the human will and of art and beauty His influence extends to figures as diverse as Friedrich Nietzsche Ludwig Wittgenstein and Iris Murdoch within philosophy and Richard Wagner Thomas Hardy Sigmund Freud Thomas Mann Samuel Beckett and Jorge Luis Borges outside it The Schopenhauerian Mind is an outstanding wide ranging collection that explores the rich nature of Schopenhauer's ideas texts influences and legacy Comprising 38 original chapters by an international team of contributors the volume is organised into five clear parts Knowledge and Reality Aesthetics and the Arts Ethics Politics and Salvation Before Schopenhauer After Schopenhauer The Schopenhauerian Mind covers all the key areas and concepts of Schopenhauer's philosophy including fields omitted in previous studies It is essential reading for students of nineteenth century philosophy Continental philosophy and philosophy of art and aesthetics and also of interest to those in related disciplines such as literature and religion The Return of Henry Starr Richard Slotkin,2024-08-06 Wild West lore collides with a life of crime in this biographical novel of the legendary Cherokee outlaw Growing up on Indian Territory in Oklahoma Henry Starr had an illustrious family lineage half Cherokee warriors half western outlaws Inspired by dime store novels and old family tales he began robbing banks to avenge the bitter mistreatment of his people But while Starr s criminal career soon made him a legend it also won him a death sentence That was years ago before a lucky twist of fate set Henry free But while the world has changed around him the myth of the outlaw Henry Starr lives on Now his best chance at a new life is to work in Hollywood depicting his former self in silent films As Henry is drawn into a glamorized version of his own past it becomes difficult to separate truth from fiction And he soon finds himself returning to the life that made him a notorious icon A fictionalized tale of Henry Starr s dramatic life novelist and historian Richard Slotkin brings authentic period detail to this saga of the frontier

Achieving Environmental Justice Karen Bell,2014-04-28 This optimistic and accessible book contributes to our understanding of the factors that shape environmental justice outcomes by assessing the extent of and reasons for environmental justice injustice in seven diverse countries Achieving Environmental Justice Bell, Karen,2014-04-28 Environmental justice aspires to a healthy environment for all as well as fair and inclusive processes of environmental decision making In order to develop successful strategies to achieve this it is important to understand the factors that shape environmental justice outcomes This optimistic accessible and wide ranging book contributes to this understanding by assessing the extent of and reasons for environmental justice injustice in seven diverse countries United States Republic of Korea South Korea United Kingdom Sweden China Bolivia and Cuba Factors discussed include race and class discrimination citizen power industrialisation processes political economic context and the influence of dominant environmental discourses In particular the role of capitalism is critically explored Based on over a hundred interviews with politicians experts activists and citizens of these countries this is a compelling analysis aimed at all academics policy makers and campaigners who are engaged in thinking or action to address the most urgent environmental and social issues of our time Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the judiciary, and related agencies appropriations for 1981

United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies,United States. Congress. House. Whole Earth Justice Gene Tierney,2020-03-02 What s This Book About Through a series of unlikely events Justice Miller a university professor and former hockey star discovers profound secrets about the fundamental nature of human civilization the perils we face and unexpected prospects for a brighter future Not one to shy away from a fight she and a group of activists provoke establishment adversaries as they pursue new solutions and strategies to confront our social and ecological problems In the process they launch a bold campaign to usher in a new era focused on greater interdependence and justice

Since humans first emerged on Earth two hundred thousand years ago with our unique abilities and characteristics we have been on a journey toward this moment We now face a crossroads and urgent choice to live together interdependently or die separately There is no salvation in isolation no scientific breakthrough that can save us no amount of money or weaponry or border fortifications that can shield us Caring about others is the only way to sustainability social justice and prosperity To some this kind of change may seem idealistic or impossible or partisan or altruistic or even inconsistent with human nature but they d be wrong It s happening right now all around us and when you know how to see it you ll see it everywhere But more importantly when you know how to see it you ll see opportunities everywhere Not just opportunities to survive but opportunities to thrive Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1992 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies,1991 Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1992: Testimony of members of Congress and other interested individuals and organizations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies,1991 Issues in Housing Discrimination ,1986 Talking Criminal Justice Michael J Coyle,2013-10-28 The words we use to talk about justice have an enormous impact on our everyday lives As the first in depth ethnographic study of language Talking Criminal Justice examines the speech of moral entrepreneurs to illustrate how our justice language encourages social control and punishment This book highlights how public discourse leaders from both conservative and liberal sides guide us toward justice solutions that do not align with our collectively professed value of equal justice for all through their language habits This contextualized study of our justice language demonstrates the concealment of intentions with clever language use which mask justice ideologies that differ greatly from our widely espoused justice values By the evidence of our own words Talking Criminal Justice shows that we consistently permit and encourage the construction of people in ways which attribute motives that elicit and empower social control and punishment responses and that make punitive public policy options acceptable This book will be of interest to academics students and professionals concerned with social and criminal justice language rhetoric and critical criminology Friedrich A. Hayek John Cunningham Wood,Robert D. Wood,2004 Chicana Lives and Criminal Justice Juanita Díaz-Cotto,2014-10-14 This first comprehensive study of Chicanas encountering the U S criminal justice system is set within the context of the international war on drugs as witnessed at street level in Chicana o barrios Chicana Lives and Criminal Justice uses oral history to chronicle the lives of twenty four Chicana pintas prisoners former prisoners repeatedly arrested and incarcerated for non violent low level economic and drug related crimes It also provides the first documentation of the thirty four year history of Sybil Brand Institute Los Angeles former women s jail In a time and place where drug war policies target people of color and their communities drug addicted Chicanas are caught up in an endless cycle of police abuse arrest and incarceration They feel the impact of mandatory sentencing laws failing social services and endemic poverty violence racism and gender discrimination The women in this book frankly discuss not only their jail experiences but also their family histories involvement with gangs addiction to drugs encounters with the juvenile and adult criminal justice systems and their successful and unsuccessful attempts to recover from addiction and reconstitute fractured families The Chicanas stories underscore the amazing resilience and determination that have allowed many of the women to break the cycle of abuse Diaz Cotto also makes policy recommendations for those who come in contact with Chicanas Latinas caught in the criminal justice system

Waterproof Justice Grace Hawthorne, 2015-03-01 In its heyday Basin Street was the Park Avenue of prostitution In 1947 Minnie Tucker runs the last great sporting house in the French Quarter Ruby Smith comes to New Orleans with a new husband and high hopes only to find her marriage is a sham She needs a job and a place to live and Minnie needs an honest bookkeeper so she hires Ruby who easily manages both sets of Minnie's books Ruby is just settling into her new life when she sees Anthony Scapesi son of Don Scapesi head of the local Mafia kill a man As the only witness Ruby knows she must leave town She ends up in Waterproof a backwater on the Mississippi where she thinks she can hide True to her Choctaw heritage Ruby is a woman of few words However she is drawn into small town life Bitsy Verner a self appointed matchmaker wastes no time in introducing her to Sheriff Nate Houston a widower Nate has recently returned from WWII with a piece of shrapnel in his knee He just wants peace and quiet to heal his mind and body However keeping peace in Waterproof isn't easy First there is Bud Garvey the town troublemaker Then there's Luther He is a permanent fixture in the sixth grade and no one expects him to amount to much But when Nate hires him we learn Luther has an uncommon ability to see straight to the heart of a problem On the home front Nate's daughter Carrie is coping with becoming a teenager And finally there's Miss Laura his mother in law who like Bitsy is vitally interested in Nate's love life Nate is attracted to Ruby but prefers to do things on his own terms When Bud Garvey's pickup is stolen he insists that Nate arrest Arlan Walker although it's clear the boy was just in the wrong place at the wrong time Arlan refuses to identify his brother as the driver and the case ends up in court In a fit of anger Judge Swetman commandeers the trial and sentences Arlan to 15 years in Angola the bloodiest maximum security prison in America A brutal killing at the prison prompts Arlan to escape during a hurricane He is presumed dead and when Luther and Carrie find him they persuade Nate to help the boy In the meantime Anthony Scapesi follows Ruby to Waterproof and attempts to silence her Ruby returns to Minnie's In an effort to find her Tony captures Luther and beats him severely Tony demands an answer and finally Luther gives him one However rather than giving Tony what he wants it turns out to be his undoing With Arlan safe and Tony gone Nate goes to New Orleans to meet Ruby at Minnie's and arrives on the night Louis Armstrong comes back to Basin Street where he delivered coal to houses in The District when he was a boy It is a night no one will ever forget

Pragmatism and the Problem of Race Bill E. Lawson, Donald F. Koch, 2004-04-21 A collection of essays examining a pragmatic approach to racism How should pragmatists respond to and contribute to the resolution of one of America's greatest and most enduring problems. Given that the most important thinkers of the pragmatist movement—Charles S. Peirce, William James, John Dewey, and George Herbert Mead—said little about the problem of race, how does their distinctly American way of thinking confront the hardship and brutality that characterizes the experience of many African Americans in this country? In twelve thoughtful and provocative essays, contemporary American pragmatists connect ideas with action and theory with practice to come to terms with this seemingly intractable problem. Exploring themes such as racism and social change, the value of the concept of race, the role of education in ameliorating racism, and the place of democracy in dealing with the tragedy of race, the voices gathered in this volume consider how pragmatism can focus new attention on the problem of race. Contributors are Michael Eldridge, Eddie S. Glaude Jr., Judith M. Green, D. Micah Hester, Donald F. Koch, Bill E. Lawson, David E. McClean, Gregory F. Pappas, Scott L. Pratt, Alfred E. Prettyman, John R. Shook, Paul C. Taylor, and Cornel West.

Sinclair Justice. Colleen Shannon, 2015-07-21.

Ranger Proud. Ranger Strong. Texas Rangers swear to uphold the law to the letter. But Captain Ross Sinclair isn't about to play by the rules to destroy a major human trafficking cartel, especially now that the only chance to break this case just strode into his life with attitude as long as her gorgeous legs. Heiress Emm Rothschild is taking names and raising hell as she searches for her abducted sister and niece. And the evidence this wild child turns up sets off a lethal chain of events challenging Ross to keep her reckless determination and seductive daring up close and dangerously personal. Now a blindsiding betrayal has Emm heading straight into harm's way. And Ross will have to put his badge and career on the line to get justice and prove to the woman he loves that a Ranger's word is a forever bond.
