Storytellers Companion To The Bible Vol 10 John:

Creation for Progressive Christians Donald Schmidt, 2020-06-23 Behind all the creation stories there is a basic assumption that God was involved the how of it was a secondary concern to the original writers The publication of this study guide is timely given the current conversations and warnings around the health of creation and climate change One can easily find online in magazines or on television images of animals that cannot find food dry areas that used to be lakes and rivers floods beyond belief and places such as Tuvalu where palm trees now grow underwater because the ocean level has risen Clearly climate change is real and impacting people around the globe The question therefore is not Does it exist or even Is this thing human caused or the natural cycle of things but rather What do we do to slow it down and enhance life for all species Although it is not a book about climate change but rather an exploration of five biblical creation stories this study can help progressive Christians engage these questions Understanding the biblical creation stories can help us see creation as a delicate balance and our role in it as stewards As people of faith it is incumbent on us to understand our relationship with every facet of the divine which is clearly present in the world and everything around us The question behind this book is this What did our ancient ancestors want us to understand about the creation of the universe the divine presence in that creation and how we might live our lives in response to that

Children of the Waters of Meribah Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2019-09-17 In the decades since Black liberation theology burst onto the scene it has turned the world of church society and academia upside down It has changed lives and ways of thinking as well But now there is a question What lessons has Black theology not learned as times have changed In this expansion of the 2017 Yale Divinity School Beecher Lectures Allan Boesak explores this question If Black liberation theology had taken the issues discussed in these pages much more seriously struggled with them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women

Immigrant Theology Rev. Dr. Job J. Cobos, 2018-09-20 What if I told you a story about children experiencing deportation What if I told you of parents and children facing interment and enduring untold hardship as they traveled through the desert landscape What if I told you about families that brave destructive environments in their homeland the as they flee What if I told you about the religious experience of immigrants whose faith helped them conquer their daily fear of being deported while they made a new life for themselves in this country What if I told you about the power of establishing relationships as the solution to the problem of immigration What if I told you about Jesus encountering and establishing relationships with foreigners

Love of Friendship in the Christian Life Jonathan Sammut,2019-12-27 Theological reflection on friendship as a particular form of Christian love emerges in Holy Scripture and continues to be elaborated in the Christian tradition However love of friendship was at times absorbed into the other traditional understanding of love love of God and of neighbor After a philosophical historical study of the Greco Roman roots of friendship in moral reflection and how and to what extent this was appropriated in the Christian tradition this book illustrates the transcendental character and the novelty of the Christian understanding of friendship found in Holy Scripture focusing particularly on the most relevant texts in the Fourth Gospel where love and friendship stand to be important themes It also shows how Saint Thomas Aquinas through his exegesis of the Fourth Gospel his synthesis of the Christian tradition and his ability to rearticulate Christian theology through Aristotelian philosophy inimitably defines the theological virtue of caritas as friendship with God In so doing he depicts friendship as the finality the telos of the Christian life Finally the book aims to show how the retrieval of a proper theology of friendship rooted in Holy Scripture and Christian tradition can enrich the life of an authentic Christian and contribute to the ongoing process of renewing moral theology
