Witchcraft, Exorcism and the Politics of Possession in a Seventeenth-Century

Convent Nicky Hallett,2017-11-22 Presenting a remarkable set of previously unpublished papers this book concerns the bewitchment possession and exorcism of two seventeenth century nuns living in exile in an English convent in the Spanish Netherlands The two women left behind an extensive set of personal writing that reveals unprecedented detail about their devotional lives and spiritual states before during and after exorcism Unlike other similar cases here the women write for themselves for the first time in 350 years this book allows their voices and their silences to resound in all their vibrancy An extensive introduction discusses the politics of piety and possession at a time when exorcism had become increasingly contentious amidst conflicting claims for rival church reform The book includes both autobiographical and biographical material written by the nuns and about them and casting new light on processes of female self writing at just the time when the modern subject is often said to have emerged

Eric Leland Saak, 2021-12-28 This volume reveals the political religious theological institutional and mythical ideals that formed the self identity of the Augustinian Order from Giles of Rome to the emergence of Martin Luther Based on detailed philological analysis this interdisciplinary study not only transforms the understanding of Augustine s heritage in the later Middle Ages but also that of Luther s relationship to his Order The work offers a new interpretative model of late medieval religious culture that sheds new light on the relationship between late medieval Passion devotion the increasing demonization of the Jews and the rise of catechetical literature It is the first volume of a planned trilogy that seeks to return late medieval Augustinian theology to the historical context of Augustinian religion The Expositor Samuel Cox, Sir William Robertson Nicoll, James Moffatt, 1887 The Thursday penny pulpit , 1841-12
